THE DUKE OF BRUNSWICK
TO THE
CONVENTION
CONCLUDED MAY 13, 1846,
BETWEEN
GREAT BRITAIN AND PRUSSIA, FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT.

Signed at Berlin, March 30, 1847.

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, ayant conclu à Berlin, le 13 Mai, 1846, une Convention pour la protection réciproque du Droit d'Auteur contre la contrefaçon; et l'Article VIII de cette Convention ayant stipulé que ceux des États Germaniques qui composent avec la Prusse, l'Association de Douanes Allemande, ou qui par la suite en deviendraient parties, auraient le droit d'accéder à la dite Convention; Leurs Majestés Britannique et Prussienne ont fait adresser à Son Altesse (Hoheit) le Duc de Brunswick l'invitation d'y accéder;

Et Son Altesse le Duc de Brunswick désirant profiter de l'occasion qui lui est offerte d'accéder à la susdite Convention;

Les Plénipotentiaires respectifs, savoir—

De la part de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, le Très Honorable Jean, Comte de Westmorland, Lord Burghersh, Pair du Royaume Uni, Membre du Conseil Privé de Sa Majesté Britannique, Lieutenant-Général, Grand-Croix des Ordres Militaire de Bath d'Angleterre et des Guelphes de Hanovre, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique près Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse;

De la part de Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, le Sieur Charles Guillaume Erneste, Baron de Canitz et Dallwitz, son Ministre d'Etat et de Cabinet pour les Affaires Etrangères, Lieutenant-Général, Chevalier de l'Ordre de l'Aigle Rouge de la première classe avec feuilles de chêne, de l'Ordre pour le Mérite, de la Croix de Fer de la première classe, de la Croix de Distinction pour le Service Militaire de Prusse, Grand-Croix de l'Ordre de

Léopold d'Autriche, des Guelphes de Hanovre, de la Maison et du Mérite d'Oldenbourg, et de Henri le Lion de Brunswick, Chevalier de la Croix d'Honneur avec la Couronne de Hohenzollern, des Ordres de St. Alexandre Newsky, de St. Wladimir de la quatrième classe, de Ste. Anne de la première classe, de St. Stanislas de la seconde classe avec la plaque, et de la Croix de Mérite Militaire de Russie ;

Et de la part de Son Altesse le Duc de Brunswick, le Sieur Othon Guillaume Charles de Roeder, son Ministre Résident près la Cour de Prusse, Colonel, Chambellan, et Commandeur de première classe de l'Ordre Brunswickois de Henri le Lion, Chevalier de l'Ordre de l'Aigle Rouge de la seconde classe de Prusse, du Mérite Civile de la troisième classe de Bavière, Commandeur de la première classe de l'Ordre de la Maison d'Erneste de la Saxe-Ducale, Commandeur des Ordres de Léopold de Belgique, de St. Christe, de l'Ordre Militaire de Sa. Bento d'Aviz, et Grand-Croix de l'Ordre de la Conception de Notre Dame de Villa-Viçosa de Portugal :

Se sont réunis afin de constater en due forme l'Accession de Son Altesse le Duc de Brunswick, ainsi que l'Acceptation, par Sa Majesté Britannique et par Sa Majesté Prussienne, de la dite Accession.

En conséquence le Plénipotentiaire de Son Altesse le Duc de Brunswick déclare, en vertu de ses pleins pouvoirs, que Sa dite Altesse accède tant à la Convention du 13 Mai, 1846, renfermant Dix Articles, et dont une copie imprimée se trouve annexée au présent Acte, qu'aux dispositions particulières contenues dans les §§ 1—4 du Protocole Séparé, également ci-joint en copie et signé le même jour ; promettant que les stipulations de la dite Convention, qui deviendra obligatoire pour le Duché de Brunswick à partir du 1er Avril, 1847, ainsi que celles du Protocole Séparé, seront exécutées par Son Altesse le Duc de Brunswick en tous points, en tant qu'elles sont applicables aux rapports dans lesquels le Gouvernement Brunswickois se trouve vis-à-vis du Gouvernement Britannique et de ses sujets ; et déclarant que les ouvrages Anglais inscrits, en vertu de l'Article II de la Convention, au registre tenu à Berlin, auront droit aussi à la protection contre la contrefaçon dans le Duché de Brunswick.

Les Plénipotentiaires de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et de Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, acceptent l'Accession de Son Altesse le Duc de Brunswick ; promettant que les stipulations de la Convention du 13 Mai, 1846, ainsi que les dispositions particulières du Protocole de la même date, seront exécutées par leurs Souverains respectifs en tous points vis-à-vis du Gouvernement Brunswickois et de ses sujets, comme entre les Gouvernemens Britannique et Prussien et leurs sujets.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé le présent Acte, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Prussia, having concluded at Berlin, on the 13th of May, 1846, a Convention for the reciprocal protection of Copyright against piracy; and it having been stipulated in Article VIII of that Convention, that those German States which, together with Prussia, compose the German Union of Customs, or which may hereafter join that Union, should have the right of acceding to the said Convention; Their Britannick and Prussian Majesties have addressed to His Highness (Hoheit) the Duke of Brunswick the invitation to accede thereto;

And His Highness the Duke of Brunswick being desirous of availing himself of the opportunity thus afforded to him of acceding to the said Convention;

The respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say,—

On the part of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable John, Earl of Westmorland, Lord Burghersh, a Peer of the United Kingdom, a Member of Her Britannick Majesty's Privy Council, a Lieutenant-General, Grand Cross of the Military Order of the Bath of England and of the Guelphs of Hanover, Her Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of Prussia;

On the part of His Majesty the King Prussia, the Sieur Charles William Ernest, Baron de Canitz and Dallwitz, his Minister of State and Cabinet for Foreign Affairs, a Lieutenant-General, Knight of the Order of the Red Eagle of the first class with oak leaves, of the Order for Merit, of the Iron Cross of the first class, of the Cross of Distinction for Military Service in Prussia, Grand Cross of the Order of Leopold of Austria, of the Guelphs of Hanover, of the House and Merit of Oldenburg, and of Henry the Lion of Brunswick, Knight of the Cross of Honour with the Crown of Hohenzollern, of the Orders of St. Alexander Newsky, of St. Wladimir of the fourth class, of St. Anne of the first class, of St. Stanislaus of the second class with the star, and of the Cross of Military Merit of Russia;

And on the part of His Highness the Duke of Brunswick, the Sieur Otho William Charles de Roeder, his Minister Resident at the Court of Prussia, a Colonel, Chamberlain, and Commander of the first class of the Order of Henry the Lion of Brunswick, Knight of the Order of the Red Eagle of the second class of Prussia, of Civil Merit of the third class of Bavaria, Commander of the first class of the Order of the House of Ernest of Ducal Saxony, Commander of the Orders of Leopold of Belgium, of Christ, of the Military Order of St. Benedict d'Aviz, and Grand Cross of the Order of the Conception of Our Lady of Villa-Viçosa of Portugal:

Met together for the purpose of recording in due form the Accession of His Highness the Duke of Brunswick, as well as the Acceptance, by Her Britannick Majesty and His Prussian Majesty, of the said Accession.

The Plenipotentiary of His Highness the Duke of Brunswick in consequence declares, in virtue of his full powers, that His said Highness accedes both to the Convention of the 13th May, 1846, containing Ten Articles, and of which a printed copy is annexed to the present Act, and to the special provisions contained in §§ 1—4 of the Separate Protocol signed on the same day, of which a copy is also hereunto annexed; promising that the stipulations of the said Convention, which shall come into operation in the Duchy of Brunswick from and after the 1st of April, 1847, as well as those of the Separate Protocol, shall be carried into execution by His Highness the Duke of Brunswick in all points, so far as they may be applicable to the relations which subsist between the Brunswick Government and the British Government and its subjects; and declaring that English works registered, in virtue of Article II of the Convention, in the register-book kept at Berlin, shall be entitled also to protection against piracy in the Duchy of Brunswick.

The Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Majesty the King of Prussia, in virtue of their full powers, accept the Accession of His Highness the Duke of Brunswick; promising that the stipulations of the Convention of the 13th of May, 1846, as well as the special provisions which are contained in the Protocol of the same date, shall be carried into execution by their respective Sovereigns in all points, with regard to the Brunswick Government and its subjects, in the same manner as between the British and Prussian Governments and their subjects.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Act, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Berlin, the 30th of March, in the year of our Lord 1847.

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, ayant conclu à Berlin, le 13 Mai, 1846, une Convention pour la protection réciproque du Droit d'Auteur contre la contrefaçon ; et l'Article VIII de cette Convention ayant stipulé que ceux des Etats Germaniques qui composent avec la Prusse, l'Association de Douane Allemande, ou qui par la suite en deviendront parties, auraient le droit d'accéder à la dite Convention ; Leurs Majestés Britannique et Prussienne ont fait adresser à Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe l'invitation d'y accéder ;

Et Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe désirant profiter de l'occasion qui lui est offerte d'accéder à la susdite Convention ;

Les Plénipotentiaires respectifs, c'est à dire,—

De la part de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, le Très Honorable Jean, Comte de Westmorland, Lord Burghersh, Pair du Royaume Uni, Membre du Conseil Privé de Sa Majesté Britannique, Lieutenant-Général, Commandeur de l'Ordre Militaire de Bath d'Angleterre, Grand-Croix de l'Ordre des Guelphes de Hanovre, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique près Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse ;

De la part de Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, le Sieur Erasme Robert, Baron de Patow, son Conseiller Intime Actuel de Légation, et Directeur au Ministère des Affaires Etrangères, Chevalier des Ordres de l'Aigle Rouge de la troisième classe avec le nœud de Prusse, et de la Maison d'Ernest de la Saxe Ducale ;

Et de la part de Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe, le Sieur Jean de Minckwitz, Son Ministre d'Etat, Lieutenant-Général et Aide-de-camp Général, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire près Leurs Majestés le Roi de Prusse et le Roi de Hanovre, Chevalier de l'Ordre Militaire de St. Henri, et Grand-Croix des Ordres du Mérite Civil de Saxe, de l'Aigle Rouge de Prusse, de Léopold d'Autriche, du Mérite Civil de Bavière, et du Faucon Blanc de la Saxe Grand-Ducale, décoré de la Médaille du Mérite Militaire de la Saxe Grand-Ducale, Grand-Croix de l'Ordre de la Maison d'Ernest de la Saxe Ducale, Chevalier de l'Ordre de Ste. Anne de la première classe de Russie, Grand Officier de la Légion d'Honneur de France, Grand-Croix de l'Ordre Militaire de Sa. Bento d'Aviz de Portugal :

Se sont réunis afin de constater en due forme l'Accession de Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe, ainsi que l'Acceptation par Sa Majesté Britannique et par Sa Majesté Prussienne de la dite Accession de Sa Majesté Saxonne.

Le Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe en conséquence déclare, en vertu de ses pleins pouvoirs, que Sa dite Majesté accède tant à la Convention du 13 Mai, 1846, renfermant dix Articles, et dont une copie imprimée se trouve annexée au présent Acte, qu'aux dispositions particulières contenues dans les §§ 1—4 du Protocole séparé, également ci-joint en copie, et signé le même jour; promettant que les stipulations de la dite Convention, qui deviendra obligatoire pour le Royaume de Saxe à partir du 1er Septembre, 1846, ainsi que celles du Protocole séparé, seront exécutées par Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe en tous points, en tant qu'elles sont applicables aux rapports dans lesquels le Gouvernement Saxon se trouve vis-à-vis du Gouvernement Britannique et de ses sujets, avec la réserve expresse, cependant, que l'Article II de la Convention soit modifié, pour la Saxe, de la manière suivante, savoir :—

Personne dans aucun des deux pays, ni dans le Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, ni dans le Royaume de Saxe, n'aura droit à la protection stipulée par l'Article I de la Convention, à moins que l'ouvrage à protéger contre la contrefaçon, n'ait été enregistré par l'auteur ou par ses ayants-droit, ainsi qu'il suit :—

1°. Si l'ouvrage a paru d'abord dans les Etats de Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe, il devra être enregistré dans le registre tenu par la Société des Libraires (register-book of the Company of Stationers) à Londres.

2°. Si l'ouvrage a paru d'abord dans les Etats de Sa Majesté Britannique, il devra être enregistré dans le registre tenu par la Direction Royale du Cercle (die Bücherrolle) à Leipzig.

Personne non plus n'aura droit à la susdite protection, à moins que les lois et réglemens des Etats respectifs n'aient été dûment observés par rapport à l'ouvrage à protéger; ni, dans le cas qu'il y aurait plusieurs exemplaires de l'ouvrage, avant qu'un exemplaire de la meilleure édition, ou de la meilleure forme, n'ait été délivré gratis à l'autorité établie à cet égard par les lois des pays respectifs.

Une copie légalisée de l'enregistrement dans le susdit registre de la Société des Libraires à Londres sera regardée dans les Etats Britanniques comme preuve du droit exclusif de publication, à moins qu'un meilleur droit n'ait été prouvé par un autre partie par-devant une cour de justice; et le certificat délivré d'après les lois de Saxe, de l'enregistrement d'un ouvrage dans le susdit registre de Leipzig, aura la même valeur dans les Etats de Sa Majesté Saxonne.

Les Plénipotentiaires de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et de Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, acceptent l'Accession de Sa Majesté le Roi de Saxe, promettant que les stipulations de la Convention du 13 Mai, 1846, ainsi que les dispositions particulières, tant du Protocole de la même date, que celles qui constituent la réserve ci-dessus mentionnée, seront exécutées par leurs Souverains respectifs en tous points vis-à-vis du Gouvernement Saxon et de ses sujets, comme entre les Gouvernemens Britannique et Prussien et leurs sujets.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé le présent Acte, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

No person in either of the two countries, either in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in the Kingdom of Saxony, shall be entitled to the protection stipulated by Article I of the Convention, unless the work to be protected against piracy shall have been registered by the author or his agents, in the following manner:—

1. If the work has first appeared in the Dominions of His Majesty the King of Saxony, it must have been registered in the register-book of the Company of Stationers in London.

2. If the work has first appeared in the Dominions of Her Britannick Majesty, it must have been registered in the register-book kept by the Royal Direction of the Circle (die Bücherrolle) at Leipzig.

Nor shall any person be entitled to the protection aforesaid, unless the laws and regulations of the respective States shall have been duly observed in regard to the work to be protected; nor, in cases where there are several copies of the work, unless one copy of the best edition, or in the best state, shall have been delivered gratuitously to the authorities appointed for that purpose by the laws of the respective countries.

A certified copy of the registration in the aforesaid register-book of the Company of Stationers in London, shall be valid in the British Dominions, as proof of the exclusive right of publication, until a better right shall be established by any other party before a court of justice; and the certificate given under the laws of Saxony, of the registration of any work in the aforesaid register-book at Leipzig, shall be equally valid in the Dominions of His Saxon Majesty.

The Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of His Majesty the King of Prussia, in virtue of their full powers, accept the Accession of His Majesty the King of Saxony; promising that the stipulations of the Convention of the 13th of May, 1846, as well as the special provisions which are contained in the Protocol of the same date, and those which form the reservation above mentioned, shall be carried into execution by their respective Sovereigns in all points, with regard to the Saxon Government and its subjects, in the same manner as between the British and Prussian Governments and their subjects.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Act, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Et de la part de Leurs Altesses (Hoheiten) les Ducs de Saxe-Altenbourg, Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha, et Saxe-Meiningen, et de Leurs Altesses Sérénissimes les Princes de Schwarzbourg-Rudolstadt et Schwarzbourg-Sondershausen, de Reuss-Greiz, Reuss-Lobenstein-Ebersdorf, et Reuss-Schleitz, le Sieur Othon Guillaume Charles de Roeder, leur Ministre Résident près la Cour de Prusse, Colonel et Chambellan, Commandeur de première classe de l'Ordre de la Maison d'Erneste de la Saxe-Ducale, Chevalier de l'Ordre de l'Aigle Rouge de la seconde classe de Prusse, Chevalier de l'Ordre du Mérite Civil de la troisième classe de Bavière, Commandeur de première classe de l'Ordre Brunswickois de Henri le Lion, Commandeur des Ordres de Léopold de Belgique, du Christ, de l'Ordre Militaire de San Bento d'Aviz, et Grand-Croix de l'Ordre de la Conception de Notre Dame de Villa-Viçosa de Portugal :

Se sont réunis afin de constater en due forme l'Accession de Leurs dites Altesse Royale, Altesses, et Altesses Sérénissimes, ainsi que l'Acceptation de cette Accession par Sa Majesté Britannique et par Sa Majesté Prussienne.

En conséquence le Plénipotentiaire de Son Altesse Royale le Grand Duc de Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, ainsi que celui de Leurs Altesses les Ducs de Saxe-Altenbourg, Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha, et Saxe-Meiningen, et de Leurs Altesses Sérénissimes les Princes de Schwarzbourg-Rudolstadt et Schwarzbourg-Sondershausen, de Reuss-Greiz, Reuss-Lobenstein-Ebersdorf, et Reuss-Schleitz, déclarent en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, que Leurs dites Altesse Royale, Altesses, et Altesses Sérénissimes, accèdent tant à la Convention du 13 Mai, 1846, renfermant Dix Articles, et dont une copie imprimée se trouve annexée au présent Acte, qu'aux dispositions particulières contenues dans les §§ 1—4 du Protocole Séparé, également ci-joint en copie, et signé le même jour ; promettant que les stipulations de la dite Convention, qui deviendra obligatoire pour les Etats de l'Association de Thuringe à partir du 15 Juillet, 1847, ainsi que celles du Protocole Séparé, seront exécutées par Leurs dites Altesse Royale, Altesses, et Altesses Sérénissimes, en tous points, en tant qu'elles sont applicables aux rapports dans lesquels les Etats de l'Association de Thuringe se trouvent vis-à-vis du Gouvernement Britannique et de ses sujets ; et déclarant que les ouvrages Anglais inscrits, en vertu de l'Article II de la Convention, au registre tenu à Berlin, auront droit aussi à la protection contre la contrefaçon dans les dits Etats.

Les Plénipotentiaires de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et de Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse, en vertu de leurs pleins pouvoirs, acceptent l'Accession de Leurs dites Altesse Royale, Altesses, et Altesses Sérénissimes ; promettant que les stipulations de la Convention du 13 Mai, 1846, ainsi que les dispositions particulières du Protocole de la même date, seront exécutées par leurs Souverains respectifs en tous points, vis-à-vis des Etats de l'Association de Thuringe et de leurs sujets, comme entre les Gouvernemens Britannique et Prussien et leurs sujets.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé le présent Acte, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

Fait à Berlin, ce 1er Juillet de l'an de grâce 1847.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Prussia, having concluded at Berlin, on the 13th of May, 1846, a Convention for the reciprocal protection of Copyright against piracy; and having stipulated in Article VIII of that Convention, that those German States which, together with Prussia, compose the German Union of Customs, or which may hereafter join that Union, should have the right of acceding to the said Convention; Their Britannick and Prussian Majesties have addressed to the States forming the Thuringian Union, that is to say, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, Their Royal Highnesses (Hoheiten) the Dukes of Saxe-Altenburg, Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, and Saxe-Meiningen, and Their Serene Highnesses the Princes of Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt and Schwarzburg-Sondershausen, Reuss-Greiz, Reuss-Lobenstein-Eberdorf, and Reuss-Schleitz, the invitation to accede thereto;

And the said States being desirous of availing themselves of the opportunity thus afforded to them of acceding to the said Convention;

The respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say,—

On the part of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable John, Earl of Westmorland, Lord Burghersh, a Peer of the United Kingdom, a Member of Her Britannick Majesty's Privy Council, a Lieutenant-General, Grand Cross of the Military Order of the Bath of England, and of the Order of the Guelphs of Hanover, Her Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of Prussia;

On the part of His Majesty the King of Prussia, the Sieur Charles William Ernest, Baron de Canitz and Dallwitz, his Minister of State and Cabinet for Foreign Affairs, a Lieutenant-General, Knight of the Order of the Red Eagle of the first class with oak leaves, of the Order for Merit, of the Iron Cross of the first class, and of the Cross of Distinction for Military Service in Prussia, Grand Cross of the Order of Leopold of Austria, of the Guelphs of Hanover, of the House and Merit of Oldenburg, and of Henry the Lion of Brunswick, Knight of the Cross of Honour with the Crown of Hohenzollern, of the Orders of St. Alexander Newsky, of St. Wladimir of the fourth class, of St. Anne of the first class, of St. Stanislaus of the second class with the star, and of the Cross of Military Merit of Russia;

On the part of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, the Sieur Charles, Baron de Martens, his Privy Councillor of Legation, Chamberlain, and Minister Resident at the Court of Prussia, Knight of the Order of the White Falcon of the third class, and of the Gold Medal for Merit of Saxe-Weimar, of the Legion of Honour of France, and of the Order of the Polar Star of Sweden, Commander of the Order of Leopold of Belgium, of the Order of Christ, and of that of the Tower and Sword of Portugal, as well as of that of the Oaken Crown of Luxemburg;

And on the part of Their Royal Highnesses (Hoheiten) the Dukes of Saxe-Altenburg, Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, and Saxe-Meiningen, and of Their Serene Highnesses the Princes of Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt and Schwarzburg-Sondershausen, of Reuss-Greiz, Reuss-Lobenstein-Ebersdorf, and Reuss-Schleitz, the Sieur Otho William Charles de Roeder, their Minister Resident at the Court of Prussia, a Colonel, Chamberlain, Commander of the first class of the Order of the House of Ernest of Ducal Saxony, Knight of the Order of the Red Eagle of the second class of Prussia, Knight of the Order of Civil Merit of the third class of Bavaria, Commander of the first class of the Order of Henry the Lion of Brunswick, Commander of the Orders of Leopold of Belgium, of Christ, of the Military Order of St. Benedict d'Aviz, and Grand Cross of the Order of the Conception of Our Lady of Villa Viçosa of Portugal:

Met together for the purpose of recording in due form the Accession of Their said Royal and Serene Highnesses, as well as the Acceptance of the said Accession by Her Britannick Majesty and His Prussian Majesty.

The Plenipotentiary of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, as well as the Plenipotentiary of Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Saxe-Altenburg, Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, and Saxe-Meiningen, and of Their Serene Highnesses the Princes of Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt and Schwarzburg-Sondershausen, Reuss-Greiz, Reuss-Lobenstein-Ebersdorf, and Reuss-Schleitz, in consequence declare, in virtue of their full powers, that their said Royal and Serene Highnesses accede both to the Convention of the 13th May, 1846, containing Ten Articles, and of which a printed copy is annexed to the present Act, and to the special provisions contained in §§ 1—4 of the Separate Protocol signed on the same day, of which a copy is also hereunto annexed; promising that the stipulations of the said Convention, which shall come into operation in the States of the Thuringian Union from and after the 15th of July, 1847, as well as those of the Separate Protocol, shall be carried into execution by their said Royal and Serene Highnesses in all points, so far as they may be applicable to the relations which subsist between the States of the Thuringian Union and the British Government and its subjects; and declaring that English works registered, in virtue of Article II of the Convention, in the register-book kept at Berlin, shall be entitled also to protection against piracy in the said States.

The Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Majesty the King of Prussia, in virtue of their full powers, accept the Accession of their said Royal and Serene Highnesses; promising that the stipulations of the Convention of the 13th of May, 1846, as well as the special provisions which are contained in the Protocol of the same date, shall be carried into execution by their respective Sovereigns in all points, with regard to the States of the Thuringian Union and their subjects, in the same manner as between the British and Prussian Governments and their subjects.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Act, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Berlin, the 1st of July, in the year of our Lord 1847.

COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION

BETWEEN

GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE.—1786 and 1787.

[MEM.—These Treaties have been annulled by the war between Great Britain and France, which commenced in 1793.]

Treaty of Navigation and Commerce between Great Britain and France. Signed at Versailles, September 26, 1786.

SA Majesté Britannique, et Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne, étant également animées du désir, non seulement de consolider la bonne harmonie qui subsiste actuellement entre elles, mais aussi d'en étendre les heureux effets sur leurs sujets respectifs, ont pensé que les moyens les plus efficaces pour remplir ces objets, conformément à l'Article XVIII du Traité de Paix signé le 6 Septembre, 1783, étaient d'adopter un système de commerce qui eût pour fondement la réciprocité et la convenance mutuelle, et qui, en faisant cesser l'état de prohibition et les droits prohibitifs qui ont existé depuis près d'un siècle, entre les deux nations, procurât, de part et d'autre, les avantages les plus solides aux productions et à l'industrie nationales, et détruisît la contrebande, qui est aussi nuisible au revenu public, qu'au commerce légitime, qui seul mérite d'être protégé. Pour cet effet, leurs susdites Majestés ont nommé pour leurs Commissaires et Plénipotentiaires, savoir, le Roi de la Grande Bretagne, le Sieur Guillaume Eden, Membre de ses Conseils Privés dans la Grande Bretagne et en Irlande, Membre de son Parlement Britannique, et son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire auprès de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne; et le Roi Très Chrétien, le Sieur Joseph Mathias Gérard de Rayneval, Chevalier, Conseiller d'Etat, Chevalier de l'Ordre Royal de Charles III; lesquels, après avoir échangé leurs pleinpouvoirs respectifs, sont convenus des Articles suivants :

HIS Britannic Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, being equally animated with the desire not only of consolidating the good harmony which actually subsists between them, but also of extending the happy effects thereof to their respective subjects, have thought that the most efficacious means for attaining those objects, conformably to Article XVIII of the Treaty of Peace signed the 6th of September, 1783, would be to adopt a system of commerce on the basis of reciprocity and mutual convenience, which, by discontinuing the prohibitions and prohibitory duties which have existed for almost a century between the two nations, might procure the most solid advantages, on both sides, to the national productions and industry, and put an end to contraband trade, no less injurious to the public revenue than to that lawful commerce which is alone entitled to protection. For this end their said Majesties have named for their Commissaries and Plenipotentiaries, to wit, the King of Great Britain, William Eden, Esq., Privy Councillor in Great Britain and Ireland, Member of the British Parliament, and his Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Most Christian Majesty; and the Most Christian King, the Sieur Joseph Mathias Gerard de Rayneval, Knight, Councillor of State, Knight of the Royal Order of Charles III; who, after having exchanged their respective full powers, have agreed upon the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

Il a été convenu et accordé entre le Sérénissime et Très Puissant Roi de la Grande Bretagne, et le Sérénissime et Très Puissant Roi Très Chrétien, qu'il y ait entre les sujets, de part et d'autre, une liberté réciproque et en toutes manières absolue de navigation et de commerce, dans tous et chacun des royaumes, états, provinces, et terres de l'obéissance de leurs Majestés en Europe, pour toutes et chacunes sortes de marchandises dans ces lieux, aux conditions, en la manière, et en la forme qu'il est réglé et établi dans les Articles suivants.

ARTICLE II.

Pour assurer à l'avenir le commerce et l'amitié entre les sujets de leurs dites Majestés, et afin que cette bonne correspondance soit à l'abri de tout trouble et de toute inquiétude, il a été convenu et accordé, que si quelque jour il survient quelque mauvaise intelligence, interruption d'amitié ou rupture entre les Couronnes de leurs Majestés, ce qu'à Dieu ne plaise! (laquelle rupture ne sera censée exister que lors du rappel ou du renvoi des Ambassadeurs et Ministres respectifs) les sujets des deux Parties qui demeureront dans les Etats l'une de l'autre, auront la faculté d'y continuer leur séjour et leur négoce, sans qu'ils puissent être troublés en aucune manière, tant qu'ils se comporteront paisiblement, et qu'ils ne se permettront rien contre les loix et les ordonnances: Et dans le cas où leur conduite les rendrait suspects, et que les Gouvernements respectifs se trouveraient obligés de leur ordonner de se retirer, il leur sera accordé pour cette fin un terme de douze mois, afin qu'ils puissent se retirer, avec leurs effets et leurs facultés, confiés tant aux particuliers qu'au public. Bien entendu que cette faveur ne pourra être réclamée par ceux qui se permettront une conduite contraire à l'ordre public.

ARTICLE I.

It is agreed and concluded between the Most Serene and Most Potent King of Great Britain, and the Most Serene and Most Potent the Most Christian King, that there shall be a reciprocal and entirely perfect liberty of navigation and commerce between the subjects of each Party, in all and every the kingdoms, States, provinces, and territories subject to their Majesties in Europe, for all and singular kinds of goods in those places upon the conditions and in such manner and form as is settled and adjusted in the following Articles.

ARTICLE II.

For the future security of commerce and friendship between the subjects of their said Majesties, and to the end that this good correspondence may be preserved from all interruption and disturbance, it is concluded and agreed, that if at any time there should arise any misunderstanding, breach of friendship or rupture between the Crowns of their Majesties, which God forbid! (which rupture shall not be deemed to exist until the recalling or sending home of the respective Ambassadors and Ministers) the subjects of each of the two Parties residing in the dominions of the other, shall have the privilege of remaining and continuing their trade therein, without any manner of disturbance, so long as they behave peaceably, and commit no offence against the laws and ordinances: And in case their conduct should render them suspected, and the respective Governments should be obliged to order them to remove, the term of twelve months shall be allowed them for that purpose, in order that they may remove, with their effects and property, whether entrusted to individuals or to the State. At the same time it is to be understood that this favour is not to be extended to those who shall act contrary to the established laws.

ARTICLE III.

On est aussi convenu, et il a été arrêté, que les sujets et habitans des royaumes, provinces et états de leurs Majestés, n'exerceront à l'avenir aucuns actes d'hostilité ni violences les uns contre les autres, tant sur mer que sur terre, fleuves, rivières, ports et rades, sous quelque nom et prétexte que ce soit ; en sorte que les sujets de part et d'autre ne pourront prendre aucune patente, commission, ou instruction pour armemens particuliers, et faire la course en mer, ni lettres vulgairement appelées de représailles, de quelques Princes ou États ennemis de l'un ou de l'autre, ni troubler, molester, empêcher ou endommager, en quelque manière que ce soit, en vertu ou sous prétexte de telles patentes, commissions ou lettres de représailles, les sujets et habitans susdits du Roi de la Grande Bretagne, ou du Roi Très Chrétien, ni faire ces sortes d'armemens, ou de s'en servir pour aller en mer. Et seront à cette fin toutes et quantes fois qu'il sera requis, de part et d'autre, dans toutes les terres, pays et domaines, quels qu'ils soient, tant de part que d'autre, renouvelées et publiées des défenses étroites et expresses, d'user, en aucune manière, de telles commissions ou lettres de représailles, sous les plus grandes peines qui puissent être ordonnées contre les infracteurs, outre la restitution et la satisfaction entière, dont il seront tenus envers ceux auxquels ils auront causé quelque dommage : Et ne seront données à l'avenir, par l'une des dites Hautes Parties Contractantes, au préjudice et au dommage des sujets de l'autre, aucunes lettres de représailles, si ne n'est seulement au cas de refus ou de délai de justice, lequel refus ou délai de justice ne sera pas tenu pour vérifié, si la requête de celui qui demande les dites lettres de représailles n'est communiquée au Ministre qui se trouvera sur les lieux, de la part du Prince contre les sujets duquel elles doivent être données, afin que, dans le terme de quatre mois, ou plus tôt, s'il se peut, il puisse faire connaître le contraire, ou procurer la satisfaction qui sera due.

ARTICLE III.

It is likewise agreed and concluded, that the subjects and inhabitants of the kingdoms, provinces and dominions of their Majesties, shall exercise no acts of hostility or violence against each other, either by sea, or by land, or in rivers, streams, ports or havens, under any colour or pretence whatsoever ; so that the subjects of either Party shall receive no patent, commission, or instruction for arming and acting at sea as privateers, nor letters of reprisal, as they are called, from any Princes or States, enemies to the other party ; nor by virtue or under colour of such patents, commissions or reprisals, shall they disturb, infest, or any way prejudice or damage the aforesaid subjects and inhabitants of the King of Great Britain, or of the Most Christian King ; neither shall they arm ships in such manner as is above said, or go out to sea therewith. To which end, as often as it is required by either Party, strict and express prohibitions shall be renewed and published in all the territories, countries, and dominions of each party wheresoever, that no one shall in any wise use such commissions or letters of reprisal, under the severest punishment that can be inflicted on the transgressors, besides being liable to make full restitution and satisfaction to those to whom they have done any damage : Neither shall any letters of reprisal be hereafter granted by either of the said High Contracting Parties, to the prejudice or detriment of the subjects of the other, except only in such case wherein justice is denied or delayed ; which denial or delay of justice shall not be regarded as verified, unless the petition of the person, who desires the said letters of reprisal, be communicated to the Minister residing there on the part of the Prince against whose subjects they are to be granted, that within the space of four months, or sooner, if it be possible, he may manifest the contrary, or procure the satisfaction which may be justly due.

ARTICLE IV.

Il sera libre aux sujets et habitants des Etats respectifs des deux Souverains d'entrer et d'aller librement et sûrement, sans permission ni sauf-conduit général ou spécial, soit par terre ou par mer, et enfin par quelque chemin que ce soit, dans les royaumes, états, provinces, terres, îles, villes, bourgs, places murées ou non murées, fortifiées ou non fortifiées, ports et domaines de l'un et de l'autre Souverain, situées en Europe, quels qu'ils puissent être, et d'en revenir, d'y séjourner, ou d'y passer, et d'y acheter aussi et acquérir, à leur choix, toutes les choses nécessaires pour leur subsistance, et pour leur usage; et ils seront traités réciproquement avec toute sorte de bienveillance et de faveur. Bien entendu, néanmoins, que, dans toutes ces choses, ils se comporteront et se conduiront conformément à ce qui est prescrit par les loix et par les ordonnances, qu'ils vivront les uns avec les autres en amis et paisiblement, et qu'ils entretiendront par leur bonne intelligence l'union réciproque.

ARTICLE V.

Il sera libre et permis aux sujets de leurs dites Majestés réciproquement d'aborder, avec leurs vaisseaux, aussi bien qu'avec leurs marchandises, et les effets dont ils seront chargés, et dont le commerce et le transport ne sont point défendus par les loix de l'un ou de l'autre royaume, et d'entrer dans les terres, états, villes, ports, lieux et rivières de part et d'autre, situés en Europe; d'y fréquenter, séjourner et demeurer, sans aucune limitation de tems, même d'y louer maisons, ou de loger chez d'autres, d'acheter où ils jugeront à propos toutes sortes de marchandises permises, soit de la première main, soit du marchand, et en quelque manière que ce puisse être, soit dans les places et marchés publics, où sont exposés les marchandises, et dans les foires, soit dans tout autre endroit où ces marchandises se fabriquent ou se vendent. Il leur sera aussi permis de serrer et de garder, dans leurs magasins ou entrepôts, les marchandises apportées

ARTICLE IV.

The subjects and inhabitants of the respective dominions of the two Sovereigns shall have liberty, freely and securely, without licence or passport, general or special, by land or by sea, or any other way, to enter into the kingdoms, dominions, provinces, countries, islands, cities, villages, towns, walled or unwalled, fortified or unfortified, ports, or territories whatsoever, of either Sovereign, situated in Europe, and to return from thence, to remain there, or to pass through the same, and therein to buy and purchase, as they please, all things necessary for their subsistence and use, and they shall mutually be treated with all kindness and favour. Provided, however, that in all these matters they behave and conduct themselves conformably to the laws and statutes, and live with each other in a friendly and peaceable manner, and promote reciprocal concord by maintaining a mutual good understanding.

ARTICLE V.

The subjects of each of their said Majesties may have leave and licence to come with their ships, as also with the merchandizes and goods on board the same, the trade and importation whereof are not prohibited by the laws of either kingdoms, and to enter into the countries, dominions, cities, ports, places, and rivers of either Party, situated in Europe, to resort thereto, and to remain and reside there, without any limitation of time; also to hire houses, or to lodge with other persons, and to buy all lawful kinds of merchandizes, where they think fit, either from the first maker or the seller, or in any other manner, whether in the public market for the sale of merchandizes, or in fairs, or wherever such merchandizes are manufactured or sold. They may likewise deposit and keep in their magazines and warehouses, the merchandizes brought from other parts, and afterwards expose the same to sale, without being in any wise obliged, unless willingly and of their own accord, to bring d'ailleurs, et de les exposer ensuite en vente, sans être obligés en aucune façon de porter leurs marchandises susdites dans les marchés et dans les foires, si ce n'est de leur bon gré et de leur bonne volonté : et ne pourront les dits sujets, pour raison de la dite liberté de commerce, ou pour toute autre cause que ce soit, être chargés d'aucun impôt du droit, à l'exception de ceux qui devront être payés pour leurs navires, ou pour leurs marchandises, conformément à ce qui est réglé par le présent Traité, ou de ce qui sera payé par les propres sujets des deux Parties Contractantes. Il leur sera aussi permis de sortir de l'un et l'autre royaume, quand ils le voudront, et d'aller où ils jugeront à propos, par terre ou par mer, par les rivières et eaux douces ; et aussi ils pourront emmener leurs femmes, enfans, domestiques, aussi bien que leurs marchandises, facultés, biens et effets achetés ou apportés, après avoir payé les droits accoutumés, nonobstant toute loi, privilège, concession, immunités ou coutumes à ce contraires, en façon quelconque. Et quant à ce qui concerne la religion, les sujets des deux Couronnes jouiront d'une entière liberté : Ils ne pourront être contraints d'assister aux offices divins, soit dans les églises ou ailleurs ; mais, au contraire, il leur sera permis, sans aucun empêchement, de faire en particulier, dans leurs propres maisons, les exercices de leur religion, suivant leur usage. On ne refusera point, de part ni d'autre, la permission d'enterrer, dans des lieux convenables qui seront désignés à cet effet, les corps des sujets de l'un et de l'autre royaume décédés dans l'étendue de la dénomination de l'autre ; et il ne sera apporté aucun trouble à la sépulture des morts. Les loix et les statuts de l'un et de l'autre royaume demeureront dans leur force et vigueur, et seront exactement exécutés, soit que ces loix et statuts regardent le commerce et la navigation, ou qu'ils concernent quelqu'autre droit, à la réserve seulement des cas aux quels il est dérogé par les Articles du présent Traité.

the said merchandizes to the marts and fairs. Neither are they to be burthened with any impositions or duties on account of the said freedom of trade, or for any other cause whatsoever, except those which are to be paid for their ships and merchandizes conformably to the regulations of the present Treaty, or those to which the subjects of the two Contracting Parties shall themselves be liable. And they shall have free leave to remove themselves, as also their wives, children, and servants, together with their merchandizes, property, goods, or effects, whether bought or imported, wherever they shall think fit, out of either kingdom, by land and by sea, on the rivers and fresh waters, after discharging the usual duties, any law, privilege, grant, immunities or customs, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. In matters of religion, the subjects of the two Crowns shall enjoy perfect liberty: they shall not be compelled to attend divine service, whether in the churches or elsewhere ; but, on the contrary, they shall be permitted, without any molestation, to perform the exercises of their religion privately in their own houses, and in their own way. Liberty shall not be refused to bury the subjects of either kingdom who die in the territories of the other, in convenient places to be appointed for that purpose ; nor shall the funerals or sepulchres of the deceased be in any wise disturbed. The laws and statutes of each kingdom shall remain in force and vigour, and shall be duly put in execution, whether they relate to commerce and navigation, or to any other right, those cases only excepted, concerning which it is otherwise determined in the Articles of this present Treaty.

ARTICLE VI.

Pour fixer d'une manière invariable le pied sur lequel le commerce sera établi entre les deux nations, les deux Hautes Parties Contractantes ont jugé à propos de régler les droits sur certains denrées et marchandises. Elles sont convenues en conséquence du Tarif suivant, savoir :—

1. Les vins de France, importés en droiture de France dans la Grande Bretagne, ne payeront pas, en aucun cas, de plus gros droits que ceux que payent présentement les vins de Portugal.

Les vins de France, importés directement de France en Irlande, ne payeront point de plus gros droits que ceux qu'ils payent actuellement.

2. Les vinaigres de France, au lieu de soixante-sept livres, cinq shelings, trois sols, et douze-vingtièmes de sol sterling, par tonneau, qu'ils payent à présent, ne payeront à l'avenir, dans la Grande Bretagne, pas de plus gros droits que trente-deux livres, dix-huit shelings, dix sols, et seize-vingtièmes de sol sterling, par tonneau.

3. Les caux-de-vie de France, au lieu de neuf shelings, six sols, douze vingtièmes de sol sterling, ne payeront à l'avenir, dans la Grande Bretagne, que sept shelings sterling par gallon, faisant quatre quarts, mesure d'Angleterre.

4. Les huiles d'olives, venant directement de France, ne payeront à l'avenir pas de plus forts droits que payent actuellement celles des nations les plus favorisées.

5. La bière payera mutuellement un droit de 30 pour cent de la valeur.

6. On classera les droits sur la quincaillerie et la tableterie (en Anglais, hardware, cutlery, cabinet ware, et turnery) et tous les ouvrages gros et menus de fer, d'acier, de cuivre et d'airain; et le plus haut droit ne passera pas 10 pour cent de la valeur.

7. Les cotons de toutes espèces, fabriqués dans les Etats des deux Souverains en Europe, ainsi que les lainages, tant tricotés que tissus, y comprise la bonneterie (en Anglais, hosiery), payeront, de part et d'autre, un droit d'entrée de 12 pour cent de

ARTICLE VI.

The two High Contracting Parties have thought proper to settle the duties on certain goods and merchandizes, in order to fix invariably the footing on which the trade therein shall be established between the two nations. In consequence of which they have agreed upon the following Tariff, viz.:—

1. The wines of France, imported directly from France into Great Britain, shall in no case pay any higher duties than those which the wines of Portugal now pay.

The wines of France, imported directly from France into Ireland, shall pay no higher duties than those which they now pay.

2. The vinegars of France instead of sixty-seven pounds, five shillings, and three pence, and twelve-twentieths of a penny sterling, per ton, which they now pay, shall not, for the future, pay, in Great Britain, any higher duties than thirty-two pounds, eighteen shillings, and ten pence, and sixteen-twentieths of a penny sterling, per ton.

3. The brandies of France, instead of nine shillings and six pence, and twelve-twentieths of a penny sterling, shall, for the future, pay, in Great Britain, only seven shillings sterling per gallon, making four quarts, English measure.

4. Oil of olives, coming directly from France, shall, for the future, pay no higher duties than are now paid for the same from the most favoured nations.

5. Beer shall pay reciprocally a duty of 30 per cent. ad valorem.

6. The duties on hardware, cutlery, cabinet-ware, and turnery, and also all works, both heavy and light, of iron, steel, copper and brass, shall be classed; and the highest duty shall not exceed 10 per cent. ad valorem.

7. All sorts of cottons manufactured in the dominions of the two Sovereigns in Europe, and also woollens, whether knit or wove, including hosiery, shall pay, in both countries, an import duty of 12 per cent. ad valorem; all manufactures la valeur; on excepte tous les ouvrages de coton et de laine mêlés de soie, lesquels demeureront prohibés de part et d'autre.

8. Les toiles de batiste et linons (en Anglais, cambricks et lawns) payeront, de part et d'autre, un droit d'entrée de cinq shelings, ou six livres tournois, par demi pièce de sept trois quarts verges d'Angleterre (yards); et les toiles de lin et de chanvre fabriquées dans les Etats des deux Souverains en Europe, ne payeront point de plus forts droits, tant dans la Grande Bretagne qu'en France, que les toiles fabriquées en Hollande et en Flandres, importées dans la Grande Bretagne, payent actuellement.

Et les toiles de lin et de chanvre fabriquées en Irlande et en France, ne payeront mutuellement point de plus forts droits que les toiles fabriquées en Hollande, importées en Irlande, payent à présent.

9. La sellerie payera mutuellement un droit d'entrée de 15 pour cent de la valeur.

10. Les gazes de toutes espèces payeront mutuellement 10 pour cent de la valeur.

11. Les modes (en Anglais, millinery) composées de mousseline, linons, batiste, gazes de toutes espèces, et de tous les autres articles admis par le présent Tarif, payeront mutuellement un droit de 12 pour cent de la valeur: et s'il y entrent des articles non énoncés au dit Tarif, ils ne payeront pas de plus forts droits que ceux que payent pour les mêmes articles les nations les plus favorisées.

12. La porcelaine, la fayence et la poterie, payeront mutuellement 12 pour cent de la valeur.

13. Les glaces et la verrerie seront admises, de part et d'autre, moyennant un droit de 12 pour cent de la valeur.

Sa Majesté Britannique se réserve la faculté de compenser, par des droits additionnels sur les marchandises ci-dessous énoncées, les droits intérieurs actuellement imposés sur les manufactures, ou ceux d'entrée qui sont levés sur les matières premières; savoir, sur les toiles de toutes espèces, teintes ou peintes, sur la bière, sur la verrerie, sur les glaces et sur les fers.

Et Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne se réserve aussi la faculté d'en user de même à l'égard des marchandises of cotton or wool, mixed with silk, excepted, which shall remain prohibited on both sides.

8. Cambricks and lawns shall pay, in both countries, an import duty of five shillings, or six livres tournois per demi piece of seven yards and three quarters, English measure; and linens, made of flax or hemp, manufactured in the dominions of the two Sovereigns in Europe, shall pay no higher duties, either in Great Britain or France, than linens manufactured in Holland or Flanders, imported into Great Britain, now pay.

And linens made of flax or hemp, manufactured in Ireland or France, shall reciprocally pay no higher duties than linens manufactured in Holland, imported into Ireland, now pay.

9. Sadlery shall reciprocally pay an import duty of 15 per cent. ad valorem.

10. Gauzes of all sorts shall reciprocally pay 10 per cent. ad valorem.

11. Millinery made up of muslin, lawn, cambric or gauzes of every kind, or of any other article admitted under the present Tariff, shall pay reciprocally a duty of 12 per cent. ad valorem: and if any articles shall be used therein, which are not specified in the Tariff, they shall pay no higher duties than those paid for the same articles by the most favoured nations.

12. Porcelaine, earthen-ware and pottery shall pay reciprocally 12 per cent. ad valorem.

13. Plate-glass and glass-ware in general, shall be admitted, on each side, paying a duty of 12 per cent. ad valorem.

His Britannic Majesty reserves the right of countervailing, by additional duties on the undermentioned merchandizes, the internal duties actually imposed upon the manufactures, or the import duties which are charged on the raw materials; namely, on all linens or cottons, stained or printed, on beer, glass-ware, plate-glass, and iron.

And His Most Christian Majesty also reserves the right of doing the same with regard to the following suivantes ; savoir, sur les cotons, sur les fers, et sur la bière.

Pour d'autant mieux assurer la perception exacte des droits énoncés au dit Tarif, payables sur la valeur, elles conviendront entr'elles, non seulement de la forme des déclarations, mais aussi des moyens propres à prévenir la fraude sur la véritable valeur des dites denrées et marchandises.

Et s'il se trouve par la suite qu'il s'est glissé dans le Tarif ci-dessus des erreurs contraires aux principes qui lui ont servi de base, les deux Souverains s'entendront de bonne foi pour les redresser.

ARTICLE VII.

Les droits énoncés ci-dessus ne pourront être changés que d'un commun accord ; et les marchandises qui n'y sont pas énoncées, acquitteront, dans les États des deux Souverains, les droits d'entrée et de sortie dûs dans chacun des dits États, par les nations Européennes les plus favorisées, à la date du présent Traité ; et les navires appartenant aux sujets des dits États auront aussi, dans l'un et dans l'autre, tous les privilèges et avantages accordés à ceux des nations Européennes les plus favorisées.

Et l'intention des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes étant que leurs sujets respectifs soient les uns chez les autres sur un pied aussi avantageux que ceux des autres nations Européennes, elles conviennent que, dans le cas où elles accorderaient, dans la suite, de nouveaux avantages de navigation et de commerce à quelque autre nation Européenne, elles y feront participer mutuellement leurs dits sujets, sans préjudice toutefois des avantages qu'elles se réservent, savoir, la France en faveur de l'Espagne, en conséquence de l'Article XXIV du Pacte de Famille, signé le 10 Mai, 1761, et l'Angleterre selon ce qu'elle a pratiqué en conformité et en conséquence de la Convention de 1703, entre l'Angleterre et le Portugal.

Et afin que chacun puisse savoir certainement en quoi consistent les susdits impôts, douanes, et droits merchandizes ; namely, cottons, iron, and beer.

And for the better securing the due collection of the duties payable ad valorem, which are specified in the above Tariff, the said Contracting Parties will concert with each other as well the form of the declarations to be made, as also the proper means of preventing fraud with respect to the real value of the said goods and merchandizes.

But if it shall hereafter appear that any mistakes have inadvertently been made in the above Tariff, contrary to the principles on which it is founded, the two Sovereigns will concert with good faith upon the means of rectifying them.

ARTICLE VII.

The duties above specified are not to be altered but by mutual consent ; and the merchandizes not above specified shall pay, in the dominions of the two Sovereigns, the import and export duties payable in each of the said dominions by the most favoured European nations, at the time the present Treaty bears date ; and the ships belonging to the subjects of the said dominions shall also respectively enjoy therein all the privileges and advantages which are granted to those of the most favoured European nations.

And it being the intention of the two High Contracting Parties, that their respective subjects should be in the dominions of each other, upon a footing as advantageous as those of other European nations, they agree that, in case they shall hereafter grant any additional advantages in navigation or trade to any other European nation, they will reciprocally allow their said subjects to participate therein, without prejudice, however, to the advantages which they reserve, viz., France, in favour of Spain, in consequence of Article XXIV of the Family Compact, signed the 10th of May, 1761, and England according to what she has practised in conformity to and in consequence of the Convention of 1703, between England and Portugal.

And to the end that every person may know with certainty the state of the aforesaid imposts, customs, d'entrée et de sortie, quels qu'ils soient, on est convenu qu'il y aura, dans les lieux publics, tant à Rouen et dans les autres villes marchandes de France, qu'à Londres et dans les autres villes marchandes de l'obéissance du Roi de la Grande Bretagne, des tarifs qui indiquent les impôts, douanes et droits accoutumés, afin que l'on y puisse avoir recours toutes les fois qu'il s'élèvera quelque différend à l'occasion de ces impôts, douanes et droits, qui ne pourront se lever que conformément à ce qui sera clairement expliqué dans les susdits tarifs, et selon leur sens naturel. Et si quelque officier, ou quelqu'un en son nom, sous quelque prétexte que ce soit, exige ou reçoit publiquement, ou en particulier, directement ou indirectement, d'un marchand, ou d'un autre, aucune somme d'argent, ou quelque autre chose que ce soit, à raison de droit dû, d'impôt, de visites, ou de compensation, même sous le nom de don fait volontairement, ou sous quelque autre prétexte que ce soit, au-delà ou autrement qu'il n'est marqué ci-dessus; en ce cas, si le dit officier, ou son substitut, étant accusé devant le juge compétent du lieu où la faute a été commise, s'en trouve convaincu, il donnera une satisfaction entière à la partie lésée, et il sera même puni de la peine due et prescrite par les loix.

ARTICLE VIII.

A l'avenir aucune des marchandises exportées respectivement des pays de l'obéissance de leurs Majestés ne seront assujetties à la visite ou à la confiscation, sous quelque prétexte que ce soit de fraude, ou de défectuosité dans la fabrique ou travail, ou pour quelque défaut que ce soit. On laissera une entière liberté au vendeur et à l'acheteur, de stipuler, et d'en faire le prix, ainsi qu'ils le trouveront à propos, nonobstant toutes loix, statuts, édits, arrêts, privilèges, concessions ou usages.

ARTICLE IX.

Comme il y a plusieurs genres de marchandises de celles qui seront apportées ou importées en France, import and export duties, whatever they may be, it is agreed that tariffs, indicating the imposts, customs and established duties, shall be affixed in public places, as well in Rouen and the other trading cities of France, as in London and the other trading cities under the dominion of the King of Great Britain, that recourse may be had to them whenever any difference shall arise concerning such imposts, customs and duties, which shall not be levied otherwise than in conformity to what is clearly expressed in the said tariffs, and according to their natural construction. And if any officer, or other person in his name, shall, under any pretence, publicly or privately, directly or indirectly, demand or take of a merchant, or of any other person, any sum of money, or anything else, on account of duties, imposts, search, or compensation, although it be under the name of a free gift, or under any other pretence, more or otherwise than what is above described; in such case, the said officer, or his deputy, if he be accused and convicted of the same before a competent judge, in the place where the crime was committed, shall give full satisfaction to the injured party, and shall likewise suffer the penalty prescribed by the laws.

ARTICLE VIII.

No merchandize exported from the countries respectively under the dominion of their Majesties, shall hereafter be subject to be inspected or confiscated, under any pretence of fraud or defect in making or working them, or of any other imperfection whatsoever; but absolute freedom shall be allowed to the buyer and seller to bargain and fix the price for the same, as they shall see good, any law, statute, edict, proclamation, privilege, grant or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

ARTICLE IX.

Whereas several kinds of merchandizes, which are usually contained in casks, chests, or other par les sujets de la Grande Bretagne, qui sont enfermées dans des tonneaux, dans des caisses, ou dans des emballages, dont les droits se payent au poids; on est convenu qu'en ce cas, les dits droits seront seulement exigés par proportion au poids effectif de la marchandise; et qu'on fera une diminution du poids des tonneaux, de caisses et emballages, de la même manière qu'il a été pratiqué et qu'il se pratique actuellement en Angleterre.

ARTICLE X.

Il est encore convenu, que si quelque inadvertence ou faute avait été commise par quelque maître de navire, l'interprète, le procureur, ou autre chargé de ses affaires, en faisant la déclaration de sa cargaison, le navire, pour cela, ni sa cargaison, ne seront point sujets à confiscation; il sera même loisible au propriétaire des effets qui auront été omis dans la liste ou déclaration fournie par le maître du navire, en payant les droits en usage, suivant la pancarte, de les retirer; pourvu toutefois qu'il n'y ait pas une apparence manifeste de fraude. Et pour cause de cette omission, les marchands, ni les maîtres de navires, ni les marchandises, ne pourront être sujets à aucune peine, pourvu que les effets omis dans la déclaration n'aient pas encore été mis à terre, avant d'avoir fait la dite déclaration.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans le cas où l'une des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes jugera à propos d'établir des prohibitions, ou d'augmenter les droits à l'entrée, sur quelque denrée ou marchandise du crû ou de la manufacture de l'autre, non énoncées dans le Tarif, ces prohibitions ou augmentations seront générales, et comprendront les mêmes denrées ou marchandises des autres nations Européennes les plus favorisées, aussi bien que celles de l'un ou de l'autre Etat; et dans le cas où l'une des deux Parties Contractantes accordera, soit la suppression des prohibitions, soit une diminution des droits en faveur d'une autre nation Européenne, sur quelque denrée ou marchancases, and for which the duties are paid by weight, will be exported from and imported into France by British subjects; it is agreed that, in such case, the aforesaid duties shall be demanded only according to the real weight of the merchandizes; and the weight of the casks, chests, and and other cases whatever, shall be deducted, in the same manner as has been and is now practised in England.

ARTICLE X.

It is further agreed, that if any mistake or error shall be committed by any master of a ship, his interpreter or factor, or by others employed by him, in making the entry or declaration of her cargo, neither the ship nor the cargo, for such defect, shall be subject to confiscation; but it shall be lawful for the proprietors to take back again such goods as were omitted in the entry or declaration of the master of the ship, paying only the accustomed duties according to the pancart; provided always that there be no manifest appearance of fraud. Neither shall the merchants or the masters of ships, or the merchandize, be subject to any penalties by reason of such omission, in case the goods omitted in the declaration shall not have been landed before the declaration has been made.

ARTICLE XI.

In case either of the two High Contracting Parties shall think proper to establish prohibitions, or to augment the import duties upon any goods or merchandize of the growth or manufacture of the other, which are not specified in the Tariff, such prohibitions or augmentations shall be general, and shall comprehend the like goods and merchandizes of the other most favoured European nations, as well as those of either State; and in case either of the two Contracting Parties shall revoke the prohibitions, or diminish the duties, in favour of any other European nation, upon any goods or merchandize of its growth or manufacture, whether on importa-dise de son crû ou manufacture, soit à l'entrée, soit à la sortie, ces suppressions ou diminutions seront communes aux sujets de l'autre Partie, à condition que celle-ci accordera aux sujets de l'autre l'entrée et la sortie des mêmes denrées et marchandises, sous les mêmes droits; exceptant toujours les cas réservés dans l'Article VII du présent Traité.

tion or exportation, such revocations or diminutions shall be extended to the subjects of the other Party, on condition that the latter shall grant to the subjects of the former the importation and exportation of the like goods and merchandizes under the same duties; the cases reserved in Article VII of the present Treaty always excepted.

ARTICLE XII.

Et d'autant qu'il s'est autrefois établi un usage, lequel n'est autorisé par aucune loi, dans quelques lieux de la Grande Bretagne et de France, suivant lequel les Français ont payé en Angleterre une espèce de capitation, nommée en langue du pays head-money, et les Anglais le même droit en France, sous le titre d'argent du chef; il est convenu que cet impôt ne s'exigera plus, de part ni d'autre, ni sous l'ancien nom, ni sous quelque autre nom que ce puisse être.

ARTICLE XII.

And forasmuch as a certain usage, not authorized by any law, has formerly obtained in divers parts of Great Britain and France, by which French subjects have paid in England a kind of capitation tax, called in the language of that country head-money, and English subjects a like duty in France, called "argent du chef;" it is agreed that the said impost shall not be demanded for the future on either side, neither under the ancient name nor under any other name whatsoever.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes a accordé ou accorde des primes (en Anglais, bounties) pour encourager l'exportation des articles du crû, du sol, ou du produit des manufactures nationales, il sera permis à l'autre d'ajouter aux droits déjà imposés en vertu du présent Traité, sur les dites denrées et marchandises importées dans ses Etats, un droit d'entrée équivalent à la dite prime. Bien entendu que cette stipulation ne s'étendra pas sur la restitution des droits et impôts (en Anglais, drawback) laquelle a lieu en cas d'exportation.

ARTICLE XIII.

If either of the High Contracting Parties has granted or shall grant any bounties for encouraging the exportation of any articles being of the growth, produce, or manufacture of his dominions, the other party shall be allowed to add to the duties already imposed, by virtue of the present Treaty, on the said goods and merchandizes imported into his dominions, such an import duty as shall be equivalent to the said bounty; but this stipulation is not to extend to the cases of restitutions of duties and imposts (called drawbacks) which are allowed upon exportation.

ARTICLE XIV.

Les avantages accordés par le présent Traité aux sujets de Sa Majesté Britannique auront leur effet, en tant qu'ils concernent le Royaume de la Grande Bretagne, aussitôt que des loix y seront passées, pour assurer aux sujets de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne la jouissance réciproque des avantages qui leur sont accordés par le présent Traité.

ARTICLE XIV.

The advantages granted by the present Treaty to the subjects of His Britannic Majesty shall take effect, as far as relates to the Kingdom of Great Britain, as soon as laws shall be passed there, for securing to the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty the reciprocal enjoyment of the advantages which are granted to them by the present Treaty.

Et les avantages accordés par tous ces articles, excepté le Tarif, auront leur effet, pour ce qui concerne le Royaume d'Irlande, aussitôt que des loix y seront passées pour assurer aux sujets de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne la jouissance réciproque des avantages qui leur sont accordés par ce Traité; et pareillement les avantages accordés par le Tarif auront leur effet, en tant qu'ils concernent le dit royaume, aussitôt que des loix y seront passées pour donner effet au dit Tarif.

ARTICLE XV.

Il a été convenu, que les navires appartenant à des sujets de Sa Majesté Britannique, venant dans les Etats de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne, des ports de la Grande Bretagne ou d'Irlande, ou de quelqu'autre port étranger, ne payeront pas le droit de frêt, ni aucun autre droit semblable. Pareillement, les navires Français seront exempts, dans les Etats de Sa Majesté Britannique, du droit de cinq shelings, ou de tout autre droit ou charge semblable.

ARTICLE XVI.

Il ne sera pas permis aux armateurs étrangers, qui ne seront pas sujets de l'une ou de l'autre Couronne, et qui auront commission de quelqu'autre Prince ou Etat ennemi de l'une ou de l'autre, d'armer leurs vaisseaux dans les ports de l'un et de l'autre des dits deux royaumes, d'y vendre ce qu'ils auront pris, ou de changer en quelque manière que ce soit, ni d'acheter même d'autres vivres que ceux qui leur seront nécessaires pour parvenir au port le plus prochain du Prince dont ils auront obtenu des commissions.

ARTICLE XVII.

Lorsqu'il arrivera quelque différend entre un capitaine de navire et ses matelots, dans les ports de l'un ou de l'autre royaume, pour raison de salaires dûs aux dits matelots, ou pour quelqu'autre cause civile que ce soit, le magistrat du lieu exigera seulement du

And the advantages granted by all these Articles, except the Tariff, shall take effect, with regard to the Kingdom of Ireland, as soon as laws shall be passed there, for securing to the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty the reciprocal enjoyment of the advantages which are granted to them by this Treaty; and in like manner the advantages granted by the Tariff shall take effect, in what relates to the said kingdom, as soon as laws shall be passed there for giving effect to the said Tariff.

ARTICLE XV.

It is agreed, that ships belonging to His Britannic Majesty's subjects, arriving in the dominions of His Most Christian Majesty, from the ports of Great Britain or Ireland, or from any other foreign port, shall not pay freight duty, or any other like duty. In the same manner French ships shall be exempted in the dominions of His Britannic Majesty, from the duty of five shillings, and from every other similar duty or charge.

ARTICLE XVI.

It shall not be lawful for any foreign privateers, not being subjects of either Crown, who have commissions from any other Prince or State in enmity with either nation, to arm their ships in the ports of either of the said two kingdoms, to sell what they have taken, or in any other manner whatever to exchange the same; neither shall they be allowed even to purchase victuals, except such as shall be necessary for their going to the nearest port of that Prince from whom they have obtained commissions.

ARTICLE XVII.

When any dispute shall arise between the commander of a ship and his seamen, in the ports of either kingdom, concerning wages due to the said seamen, or other civil causes whatever, the magistrate of the place shall require no more from the person accused than that he give to the ac-défendeur de donner au demandeur sa déclaration par écrit, attestée par le magistrat, par laquelle il promettra de répondre dans sa patrie sur l'affaire dont il s'agira, pardevant un juge compétent; au moyen de quoi il ne sera pas permis aux matelots d'abandonner le vaisseau, ni d'apporter quelque empêchement au capitaine du navire dans la continuation de son voyage. Il sera aussi permis aux marchands de l'un ou de l'autre royaume, de tenir, dans les lieux de leur domicile, ou partout ailleurs où bon leur semblera, des livres de compte et de commerce, et d'entretenir aussi correspondance de lettres dans la langue ou dans l'idiome qu'ils jugeront à propos, sans qu'on puisse les inquiéter, ni les rechercher en aucune manière, pour ce sujet. Et s'il leur était nécessaire, pour terminer quelque procès ou différend, de produire leurs livres de compte, en ce cas ils seront obligés de les apporter en entier, en justice, sans toutefois qu'il soit permis au juge de prendre connaissance, dans les dits livres, d'autres articles que de ceux seulement qui regarderont l'affaire dont il s'agit, ou qui seront nécessaires pour établir la foi de ces livres; et il ne sera pas permis de les enlever des mains de leurs propriétaires, ni de les retenir, sous quelque prétexte que ce soit, excepté seulement dans le cas de banqueroute. Les sujets de la Grande Bretagne ne seront pas tenus de se servir de papier timbré pour leurs livres, leurs lettres, et les autres pièces qui regarderont le commerce, à la réserve de leur journal, qui pour faire foi en justice devra être côté et parafé gratis par le juge, conformément aux loix établies en France, qui y assujettissent tous les marchands.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Il a été statué de plus, et l'on est convenu, qu'il soit entièrement libre à tous les marchands, capitaines de vaisseaux, et autres sujets du Roi de la Grande Bretagne, dans tous les Etats de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne en Europe, de traiter leurs affaires par eux-mêmes, ou d'en charger qui bon leur semblera; et ils ne seront tenus de se servir d'aucun interprète, ou facteur, ni de leur payer cuser a declaration in writing, witnessed by the magistrate, whereby he shall be bound to answer that matter before a competent judge in his own country; which being done, it shall not be lawful either for the seamen to desert their ship, or to hinder the commander from prosecuting his voyage. It shall moreover be lawful for the merchants in the places of their abode, or elsewhere, to keep books of their accounts and affairs, as they shall think fit, and to have an intercourse of letters, in such language or idiom as they shall choose, without any molestation or search whatsoever. But if it should happen to be necessary for them to produce their books of accounts for deciding any dispute or controversy, in such case, they shall be obliged to bring into court the entire books or writings, but so as the judge may not have liberty to take cognizance of any other articles in the said books, than such as shall relate to the affair in question, or such as shall be necessary to give credit to the said books; neither shall it be lawful, under any pretence, to take the said books or writings forcibly out of the hands of the owners, or to retain them, the case of bankruptcy only excepted. Nor shall the subjects of the King of Great Britain be obliged to write their accounts, letters, or other instruments relating to trade, on stamped paper, except their day-book, which, that it may be produced as evidence in any law-suit, ought, according to the laws which all persons trading in France are to observe, to be indorsed and attested gratis by the judge, under his own hand.

ARTICLE XVIII.

It is further agreed and concluded, that all merchants, commanders of ships, and others the subjects of the King of Great Britain, in all the dominions of His Most Christian Majesty in Europe, shall have full liberty to manage their own affairs themselves, or to commit them to the management of whomsoever they please; nor shall they be obliged to employ any interpreter or broker, nor to pay them any salary, unless aucun salaire, si ce n'est qu'ils veuillent s'en servir. En outre, les maîtres des vaisseaux ne seront point tenus de se servir, pour charger ou décharger leurs navires, de personnes établies à cet effet par l'autorité publique, soit à Bourdeaux, soit ailleurs ; mais il leur sera entièrement libre de charger ou décharger leurs vaisseaux par eux-mêmes, ou de se servir de ceux qu'il leur plaira, pour les charger ou les décharger, sans payer aucun salaire à quelqu'autre personne que ce puisse être. Ils ne seront point tenus aussi de décharger, dans les navires d'autrui, ou de recevoir dans les leurs, quelque marchandise que ce soit, ni d'attendre leur chargement plus longtemps qu'ils le jugeront à propos. Et tous les sujets du Roi Très Chrétien jouiront pareillement, et seront en possession des mêmes privilèges et libertés, dans tous les Etats de Sa Majesté Britannique en Europe.

ARTICLE XIX.

On ne pourra obliger les vaisseaux chargés des deux Parties, passant sur les côtes l'une de l'autre, et que la tempête aura obligés de relâcher dans les rades ou ports, ou qui y auront pris terre de quelque autre manière que ce soit, d'y décharger leurs marchandises en tout ou en partie, ou de payer quelque droit, à moins qu'ils ne les y déchargent de leur bon gré, et qu'ils n'en vendent quelque partie. Il sera cependant libre, après en avoir obtenu la permission de ceux qui ont la direction des affaires maritimes, de décharger ou de vendre une petite partie du chargement, seulement pour acheter les vivres, ou les choses nécessaires pour le radoub du vaisseau ; et dans ce cas, on ne pourra exiger de droits pour tout le chargement, mais seulement pour la petite partie qui aura été déchargée ou vendue.

ARTICLE XX.

Il sera permis à tous les sujets du Roi de la Grande Bretagne, et du Roi Très Chrétien, de naviguer avec leurs vaisseaux, en toute sûreté et liberté, et sans distincthey shall choose to employ them. Moreover, masters of ships shall not be obliged, in loading or unloading their ships, to make use of those persons who may be appointed by public authority for that purpose, either at Bourdeaux or elsewhere ; but it shall be entirely free for them to load or unload their ships by themselves, or to make use of such persons in loading or unloading the same, as they shall think fit, without the payment of any reward to any other whomsoever ; neither shall they be forced to unload into other ships, or to receive into their own any merchandize whatever, or to wait for their lading any longer than they please. And all the subjects of the Most Christian King shall reciprocally have and enjoy the same privileges and liberties, in all the dominions of His Britannic Majesty in Europe.

ARTICLE XIX.

The ships of either Party being laden, sailing along the coasts of the other, and being forced by storm into the havens or ports, or making land there in any other manner whatever, shall not be obliged to unlade their goods, or any part thereof, or to pay any duty, unless they, of their own accord, unlade their goods there, and sell some part thereof. But it shall be lawful, permission having been first obtained from those who have the direction of maritime affairs, to unlade and sell a small part of their cargo, merely for the end of purchasing necessities, either for victualling or refitting the ship ; and in that case the whole lading shall not be subject to pay the duties, but that small part only which shall have been taken out and sold.

ARTICLE XX.

It shall be lawful for all the subjects of the King of Great Britain, and of the Most Christian King, to sail with their ships, with perfect security and liberty, no dis-tion de ceux à qui les marchandises de leur chargement appartiendront, de quelque port que ce soit, dans les lieux qui sont déjà ou qui seront ci-après en guerre avec le Roi de la Grande Bretagne, ou avec le Roi Très Chrétien. Il sera aussi permis aux dits sujets de naviguer et de négocier avec leurs vaisseaux et marchandises, avec la même liberté et sûreté, des lieux, ports, et endroits appartenant aux ennemis des deux parties, ou de l'une d'elles, sans être aucunement inquiétés ni troublés, et d'aller directement, non seulement des dits lieux ennemis à un lieu neutre, mais encore d'un lieu ennemi à un autre lieu ennemi, soit qu'ils soient sous la juridiction d'un même ou de différents Princes. Et comme il a été stipulé, par rapport aux navires et aux marchandises, que l'on regardera comme libre tout ce qui sera trouvé sur les vaisseaux appartenant aux sujets de l'un et de l'autre royaume, quoique tout le chargement, ou une partie de ce même chargement, appartienne aux ennemis de leurs Majestés, à l'exception cependant des marchandises de contrebande, lesquelles étant interceptées, il sera procédé conformément à l'esprit des Articles suivans; de même il a été convenu, que cette même liberté doit s'étendre aussi aux personnes qui naviguent sur un vaisseau libre, de manière que, quoiqu'elles soient ennemies des deux parties, ou de l'une d'elles, elles ne seront point tirées du vaisseau libre, si ce n'est que ce fussent des gens de guerre actuellement au service des dits ennemis, et se transportant pour être employés comme militaires dans leurs flottes ou dans leurs armées.

ARTICLE XXI.

Cette liberté de navigation et de commerce s'étendra à toute sorte de marchandises, à la réserve seulement de celles qui seront exprimées dans l'Article suivant, et désignées sous le nom de marchandises de contrebande.

ARTICLE XXII.

On comprendra sous ce nom de marchandises de contrebande, ou défendues, les armes, canons, arquetion being made who are the proprietors of the merchandizes laden thereon, from any port whatever, to the countries which are now or shall be hereafter at war with the King of Great Britain, or the Most Christian King. It shall likewise be lawful for the aforesaid subjects to sail and traffic with their ships and merchandizes, with the same liberty and security, from the countries, ports and places of those who are enemies of both, or of either Party, without any opposition or disturbance whatsoever, and to pass directly not only from the places of the enemy aforementioned to neutral places, but also from one place belonging to an enemy to another place belonging to an enemy, whether they be under the jurisdiction of the same or of several Princes, And as it has been stipulated concerning ships and goods, that every thing shall be deemed to be free, which shall be found on board the ships belonging to the subjects of the respective kingdoms, although the whole lading, or part thereof, should belong to the enemies of their Majesties, contraband goods being always excepted, on the stopping of which such proceedings shall be had as are conformable to the spirit of the following Articles; it is likewise agreed that the same liberty be extended to persons who are on board a free ship, to the end that, although they be enemies to both or to either Party, they may not be taken out of such free ship, unless they are soldiers actually in the service of the enemies, and on their voyage for the purpose of being employed in a military capacity in their fleets or armies.

ARTICLE XXI.

This liberty of navigation and commerce shall extend to all kinds of merchandizes excepting those only which are specified in the following Article, and which are described under the name of contraband.

ARTICLE XXII.

Under this name of contraband, or prohibited goods, shall be comprehended arms, cannon, harque-buses, mortiers, pétards, bombes, grenades, saucisses, cercles-poissés, affûts, fourchettes, bandouillères, poudre à canon, mèches, salpêtre, balles, piques, épées, morions, casques, cuirasses, hallebardes, javelines, fourreaux de pistolet, baudriers, chevaux avec leurs harnois, et tous autres semblables genres d'armes et d'instrumens de guerre servant à l'usage des troupes.

ARTICLE XXIII.

On ne mettra point au nombre des marchandises défendues celles qui suivent; savoir, toutes sortes de draps, et tous autres ouvrages de manufacture de laine, de lin, de soie, de coton, et de toute autre matière, tous genres d'habillemens, avec les choses qui servent ordinairement à les faire, or, argent monnoyé ou non monnoyé, étain, fer, plomb, cuivre, laiton, charbon à fourneau, bled, orge, et toute autre sorte de grains et de légumes, le tabac, toutes sortes d'aromates, chairs salées et fumées, poissons salés, fromages et beurre, bières, huiles, vins, sucre, toutes sortes de sels et de provisions servant à la nourriture et à la subsistance des hommes, tous genres de coton, cordages, cables, voiles, toile propre à faire des voiles, chanvre, suif, goudron, brai et résine, ancres et parties d'ancres, quelles qu'elles puissent être, mâts de navires, planches, madriers, poutres de toutes sortes d'arbres, et de toutes les autres choses nécessaires pour construire ou pour radoubler les vaisseaux. On ne regardera pas non plus comme marchandises de contrebande celles qui n'auront pas pris la forme de quelque instrument ou attirail servant à l'usage de la guerre, sur terre ou sur mer, encore moins celles qui sont préparées ou travaillées pour tout autre usage. Toutes ces choses seront censées marchandises non défendues, de même que toutes celles qui ne sont pas comprises et spécialement désignées dans l'Article précédent; en sorte qu'elles pourront être librement transportées par les sujets des deux royaumes, même dans les lieux ennemis, excepté seulement dans les places assiégées, bloquées et investies.

busses, mortars, petards, bombs, grenades, saucisses, carcasses, carriages for cannon, musket-rests, bandoliers, gunpowder, match, saltpetre, ball, pikes, swords, headpieces, helmets, cuirasses, halberds, javelins, holtsters, belts, horses and harness, and all other like kinds of arms and warlike implements fit for the use of troops.

ARTICLE XXIII.

These merchandizes which follow shall not be reckoned among contraband goods; that is to say, all sorts of cloth, and all other manufactures of wool, flax, silk, cotton, or any other materials, all kinds of wearing apparel, together with the articles of which they are usually made, gold, silver, coined or uncoined, tin, iron, lead, copper, brass, coals, as also wheat and barley, and any other kind of corn and pulse, tobacco, and all kinds of spices, salted and smoked flesh, salted fish, cheese and butter, beer, oil, wines, sugar, all sorts of salt, and of provisions which serve for sustenance and food to mankind, also all kinds of cotton, cordage, cables, sails, sailcloth, hemp, tallow, pitch, tar, and rosin, anchors and any parts of anchors, ship-masts, planks, timber of all kinds of trees, and all othes things proper either for building or repairing ships. Nor shall any other goods whatever, which have not been worked into the form of any instrument, or furniture for warlike use, by land or by sea, be reputed contraband, much less such as have been already wrought and made up for any other purpose. All which things shall be deemed goods not contraband, as likewise all others which are not comprehended and particularly described in the preceding Article; so that they may be freely carried by the subjects of both kingdoms, even to places belonging to an enemy, excepting only such places as are besieged, blocked up or invested.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Mais pour éviter et prévenir la discorde, et toutes sortes d'inimitiés de part et d'autre, il a été convenu, qu'en cas que l'une des deux parties se trouvât engagée en guerre, les vaisseaux et les bâtimens appartenant aux sujets de l'autre Partie, devront être munis de lettres de mer, qui contiendront le nom, la propriété et la grandeur du vaisseau, de même que le nom et le lieu de l'habitation du maître ou du capitaine de ce vaisseau, en sorte qu'il paraisse que ce vaisseau appartient véritablement et réellement aux sujets de l'une ou de l'autre Partie; et ces lettres de mer seront accordées et conçues dans la forme annexée au présent Traité: elles seront aussi renouvelées chaque année, s'il arrive que le vaisseau revienne dans le cours de l'an. Il a été aussi convenu, que ces sortes de vaisseaux chargés ne devront pas être seulement munis des lettres de mer ci-dessus mentionnées, mais encore de certificats contenant les espèces de la charge, le lieu d'où le vaisseau est parti, et celui de sa destination, afin que l'on puisse connaître s'il ne porte aucune des marchandises défendues, ou de contrebande, spécifiées dans l'Article XXII de ce Traité; lesquels certificats seront expédiés par les officiers du lieu d'où le vaisseau sortira, selon la coutume. Il sera libre aussi, si on le désire, et si on le juge à propos, d'exprimer dans les dites lettres, à qui appartiennent les marchandises.

ARTICLE XXV.

Les vaisseaux des sujets et habitants des royaumes respectifs, arrivant sur quelque côte de l'un ou de l'autre, sans cependant vouloir entrer dans le port, ou y étant entrés, et ne voulant point débarquer ou rompre leurs charges, ne seront obligés de rendre compte de leur chargement, qu'au cas qu'il y eût des indices certains qui les rendissent suspects de porter, aux ennemis de l'une des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes, des marchandises défendues, appelées de contrebande.

ARTICLE XXIV.

To the end that all manner of dissensions and quarrels may be avoided and prevented on both sides, it is agreed, that in case either of their Majesties should be engaged in war, the ships and vessels belonging to the subjects of the other shall be furnished with sea-letters or passports, expressing the name, property, and bulk of the ship, as also the name and place of abode of the master or commander of the said ship, that it may appear thereby that the ship really and truly belongs to the subjects of one of the Princes; which passports shall be made out and granted according to the form annexed to the present Treaty: they shall likewise be renewed every year if the ship happens to return home within the space of a year. It is also agreed, that such ships when laden are to be provided not only with passports as above mentioned, but also with certificates containing the several particulars of the cargo, the place from whence the ship sailed, and whither she is bound, so that it may be known whether she carries any of the prohibited or contraband goods specified in Article XXII of this Treaty; which certificates shall be prepared by the officers of the place from whence the ship set sail, in the accustomed form. And if any one shall think fit to express in the said certificates the person to whom the goods belong, he may freely do so.

ARTICLE XXV.

The ships belonging to the subjects and inhabitants of the respective kingdoms coming to any of the coasts of either of them, but without being willing to enter into port, or, being entered, yet not willing to land their cargoes or break bulk, shall not be obliged to give an account of their lading, unless they are suspected, upon sure evidence, of carrying prohibited goods, called contraband, to the enemies of either of the two High Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE XXVI.

Si les vaisseaux des dits sujets et habitans des Etats respectifs de leurs Sérénissimes Majestés étaient rencontrés faisant route sur les côtes, ou en pleine mer, par quelques vaisseaux de guerre de leurs Sérénissimes Majestés, ou par quelques vaisseaux armés par des particuliers, les dits vaisseaux de guerre ou armateurs particuliers, pour éviter tout désordre, demeureront hors de la portée de canon, et pourront envoyer leurs chaloupes au bord du vaisseau marchand qu'ils auront rencontré, et y entrer seulement au nombre de deux ou trois hommes, à qui seront montrées, par le maître ou capitaine de ce vaisseau ou bâtiment, les lettres de mer, qui contiennent la preuve de la propriété du vaisseau, et conçues dans la forme annexée au présent Traité; et il sera libre au vaisseau qui les aura montrées de poursuivre sa route, sans qu'il soit permis de le molester et visiter, en façon quelconque, ou de lui donner la chasse, ou de l'obliger à se détourner du lieu de sa destination.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Le bâtiment marchand appartenant aux sujets de l'une des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes, qui aura résolu d'aller dans un port ennemi de l'autre, et dont le voyage et l'espèce des marchandises de son chargement, seront justement soupçonnés, sera tenu de produire en pleine mer, aussi bien que dans les ports et rades, non seulement ses lettres de mer, mais aussi des certificats qui marquent que ces marchandises ne sont pas du nombre de celles qui ont été défendues, et qui sont énoncées dans l'Article XXII de ce Traité.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

Si par l'exhibition des certificats susdits, contenant un état du chargement, l'autre Partie y trouve quelques unes de ces sortes de marchandises défendues et déclarées de contrabande par l'Article XXII de ce Traité, et qui soient destinées

ARTICLE XXVI.

In case the ships belonging to the said subjects and inhabitants of the respective dominions of their Most Serene Majesties, either on the coast or on the high seas, shall meet with any men-of-war belonging to their Most Serene Majesties, or with privateers, the said men-of-war and privateers, for preventing any inconveniences, are to remain out of cannon shot, and to send their boats to the merchant-ship which may be met with, and shall enter her to the number of two or three men only, to whom the master or commander of such ship or vessel shall show his passport, containing the proof of the property of the ship, made out according to the form annexed to this present Treaty; and the ship which shall have exhibited the same shall have liberty to continue her voyage. and it shall be wholly unlawful any way to molest or search her, or to chase or compel her to alter her course.

ARTICLE XXVII.

The merchant-ships belonging to the subjects of either of the two High Contracting Parties, which intend to go to a port at enmity with the other Sovereign, concerning whose voyage and the sort of goods on board there may be just cause of suspicion, shall be obliged to exhibit, as well on the high seas as in the ports and havens, not only her passports, but also her certificates, expressing that the goods are not of the kind which are contraband, as specified in Article XXII of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

If, on exhibiting the above-mentioned certificates, containing a list of the cargo, the other Party should discover any goods of that kind which are declared contraband or prohibited by Article XXII of this Treaty, and which are designed pour un port de l'obéissance de ses ennemis, il ne sera pas permis de rompre ni d'ouvrir les écoutilles, caisses, coffres, balles, tonneaux, et autres vases trouvés sur ce navire, ni d'en détourner la moindre partie des marchandises, soit que ce vaisseau appartienne aux sujets du Roi de la Grande Bretagne, ou à ceux du Roi Très Chrétien, à moins que son chargement n'ait été mis à terre, en la présence des officiers de l'Amirauté, et qu'il n'ait été par eux fait inventaire des dites marchandises: elles ne pourront aussi être vendues, échangées, ou autrement aliénées, de quelque manière que ce puisse être, qu'après que le procès aura été fait dans les règles, et selon les loix et les coutumes, contre ces marchandises défendues, et que les Juges de l'Amirauté respectivement les auront confisquées par sentences, à la réserve, néanmoins, tant du vaisseau même, que des autres marchandises qui y auront été trouvées, et qui, en vertu de ce Traité, doivent être censées libres; et sans qu'elles puissent être retenues, sous prétexte qu'elles seraient chargées avec des marchandises défendues, et encore moins être confisquées, comme une prise légitime: et supposé que les dites marchandises de contrebande ne faisant qu'une partie de la charge, le patron du vaisseau agréât, consentît et offrit de les livrer au vaisseau qui les a découvertes, en ce cas, celui-ci, après avoir reçu les marchandises de bonne prise, sera tenu de laisser aller aussitôt le bâtiment, et ne l'empêchera, en aucune manière, de poursuivre sa route vers le lieu de sa destination.

ARTICLE XXIX.

Il a été au contraire convenu et accordé, que tout ce qui se trouvera chargé par les sujets et habitants de part et d'autre, en un navire appartenant aux ennemis de l'autre, bien que ce ne fût pas des marchandises de contrebande, sera confisqué comme s'il appartenait à l'ennemi même; excepté les marchandises et effets qui auront été chargés dans ce vaisseau avant la déclaration de la guerre, ou l'ordre général de représailles, ou même depuis la déclaration, for a port subject to his enemies, it shall be unlawful to break up or open the hatches, chests, casks, bales, or other vessels found on board such ship, or to remove even the smallest parcel of the goods, whether the said ship belongs to the subjects of the King of Great Britain, or of the Most Christian King, unless the lading be brought on shore, in the presence of the officers of the Court of Admiralty, and an inventory made by them of the said goods: nor shall it be lawful to sell, exchange, or alienate the same in any manner, unless after due and lawful process shall have been had against such prohibited goods, and the Judges of the Admiralty respectively shall, by sentence pronounced, have confiscated the same, saving always as well the ship itself, as the other goods found therein, which by this Treaty are to be accounted free; neither may they be detained on pretence of their being mixed with prohibited goods, much less shall they be confiscated as lawful prize; and if when only part of the cargo shall consist of contraband goods, the master of the ship shall agree, consent and offer to deliver them to the captor who has discovered them, in such case, the captor having received those goods, as lawful prize, shall forthwith release the ship, and not hinder her, by any means, from prosecuting her voyage to the place of her destination.

ARTICLE XXIX.

On the contrary it is agreed, that whatever shall be found to be laden by the subjects and inhabitants of either Party, on any ship belonging to the enemies of the other, although it be not contraband goods, shall be confiscated in the same manner as if it belonged to the enemy himself; except those goods and merchandizes which were put on board such ship before the declaration of war, or the general order for reprisals, or even after such declaration, if it were done within the times pourvû que ç'ait été dans les termes qui suivent, à savoir, de deux mois après cette déclaration ou l'ordre de représailles, si elles ont été chargées dans quelque port et lieu compris dans l'espace qui est entre Archangel, St. Pétersbourg, et les Sorlingues, et entre les Sorlingues et la ville de Gibraltar; de dix semaines dans la Mer Méditerranée; et de huit mois dans tous les autres pays ou lieux du monde; de manière que les marchandises des sujets de l'un et de l'autre Prince, tant celles qui sont de contrebande, que les autres qui auront été chargées, ainsi qu'il est dit, sur quelques vaisseaux ennemis avant la guerre, ou même depuis sa déclaration, dans les tems et les termes susdits, ne seront en aucune manière sujettes à confiscation, mais seront sans délai et de bonne foi rendues aux propriétaires, qui les redemanderont; en sorte néanmoins qu'il ne soit nullement permis de porter ensuite ces marchandises dans les ports ennemis, si elles sont de contrebande.

ARTICLE XXX.

Et pour pourvoir plus amplement à la sûreté réciproque des sujets de leurs Sérénissimes Majestés, afin qu'il ne leur soit fait aucun préjudice par les vaisseaux de guerre de l'autre Partie, ou par d'autres armées aux dépens des particuliers, il sera fait défense à tous capitaines des vaisseaux du Roi de la Grande Bretagne, et du Roi Très Chrétien, et à tous leurs sujets, de faire aucun dommage ou insulte à ceux de l'autre Partie; et au cas qu'ils y contreviennent, ils en seront punis; et de plus ils seront tenus et obligés, en leurs personnes et en leurs biens, de réparer tous les dommages et intérêts, de quelque nature qu'ils soient, et d'y satisfaire.

ARTICLE XXXI.

Et pour cette cause, chaque capitaine des vaisseaux armés en guerre par des particuliers, sera tenu et obligé à l'avenir, avant que de recevoir ses patentes ou ses commissions spéciales, de donner, pardevant un juge compétent, following; that is to say, if they were put on board such ship in any port or place, within the space of two months after such declaration or order for reprisals, between Archangel, St. Petersburg, and the Scilly Islands, and between the said islands and the city of Gibraltar; of ten weeks in the Mediterranean Sea; and of eight months in any other country or place in the world; so that the goods of the subjects of either Prince, whether they be contraband or otherwise, which, as aforesaid, were put on board any ship belonging to an enemy before the war, or after the declaration of the same, within the time and limits above mentioned, shall no ways be liable to confiscation, but shall well and truly be restored, without delay, to the proprietors demanding the same: provided nevertheless, that if the said merchandizes be contraband, it shall not be any ways lawful to carry them afterwards to the ports belonging to the enemy.

ARTICLE XXX.

And that more abundant care may be taken for the security of the respective subjects of their Most Serene Majesties, to prevent their suffering any injury by the men-of-war or privateers of either Party, all the commanders of the ships of the King of Great Britain, and of the Most Christian King, and all their subjects, shall be forbid doing any damage to those of the other Party, or committing any outrage against them; and if they act to the contrary they shall be punished, and shall moreover be bound, in their persons and estates, to make satisfaction and reparation for all damages, and the interest thereof, of what nature soever.

ARTICLE XXXI.

For this cause, all commanders of privateers, before they receive their patents or special commissions, shall hereafter be obliged to give, before a competent judge, sufficient security by good bail, who are responsible men, and have no interest in caution bonne et suffisante de personnes solvables, qui n'aient aucun intérêt dans le dit vaisseau, et qui s'obligent chacune solidairement pour la somme de trente-six mille livres tournois, ou de quinze cent livres sterling; et si ce vaisseau est monté de plus de cent cinquante matelots ou soldats, pour la somme de soixante-douze mille livres tournois, ou de trois mille livres sterling, pour répondre solidairement de tous les dommages et torts que lui, ses officiers, ou autres étant à son service, pourraient faire en leur course, contre la teneur du présent Traité, et contre les édits faits de part et d'autre, en vertu du même Traité, par leurs Sérénissimes Majestés, sous peine aussi de révocation et de cassation des dites patentes et commissions spéciales.

ARTICLE XXXII.

Leurs Majestés susdites voulant respectivement traiter, dans leurs Etats, les sujets l'une de l'autre aussi favorablement que s'ils étaient leurs propres sujets, donneront les ordres nécessaires et efficaces, pour faire rendre les jugemens et arrêts concernant les prises, dans la Cour de l'Amirauté, selon les règles de la justice et de l'équité, et conformément à ce qui est prescrit par ce Traité, par des juges qui soient au-dessus de tout soupçon, et qui n'aient aucun intérêt au fait dont il est question.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

Et quand, par les lettres de mer et les certificats, il apparaîtra suffisamment de la qualité du vaisseau, et de celle de ses marchandises et de son maître, il ne sera point permis aux Commandans des vaisseaux armés en guerre, sous quelque prétexte que ce soit, de faire aucune autre vérification. Mais si quelque navire marchand se trouvait dépourvu de ses lettres de mer ou de certificats, il pourra alors être examiné par un juge compétent, de façon, cependant, que si, par d'autres indices et documens, il se trouve qu'il appartienne véritablement aux sujets d'un des dits Souverains, et qu'il ne contienne aucune marchandise de contrebande destinée pour the said ship, each of whom shall be bound in the whole for the sum of thirty-six thousand livres tournois, or fifteen hundred pounds sterling; or if such ship be provided with above one hundred and fifty seamen or soldiers, for the sum of seventy-two thousand livres tournois, or three thousand pounds sterling, that they will make entire satisfaction for all damages and injuries whatsoever, which they, or their officers, or others in their service, may commit during their cruize, contrary to the tenor of this present Treaty, or the edicts made in consequence thereof by their Most Serene Majesties, under penalty likewise of having their patents and special commissions revoked and annulled.

ARTICLE XXXII.

Their said Majesties being willing mutually to treat in their dominions the subjects of each other as favourably as if they were their own subjects, will give such orders as shall be necessary and effectual, that the judgments and decrees concerning prizes in the Court of Admiralty be given conformably to the rules of justice and equity, and to the stipulations of this Treaty, by judges who are above all suspicion, and who have no manner of interest in the cause in dispute.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

And when the quality of the ship, goods, and master, shall sufficiently appear from such passports and certificates, it shall not be lawful for the Commanders of men-of-war to exact any further proof under any pretext whatsoever. But if any merchant-ship shall not be provided with such passports or certificates, then it may be examined by a proper judge, but in such manner as, if it shall be found, from other proofs and documents, that it truly belongs to the subjects of one of the Sovereigns, and does not contain any contraband goods designed to be carried to the enemy of the other, it shall not be liable to confiscation, but shall be released, together with l'ennemi de l'un d'eux, il ne devra point être confisqué, mais il sera relâché, avec sa charge, afin qu'il poursuive son voyage.

S'il arrive que le maître du navire dénommé dans les lettres de mer soit mort, ou qu'ayant été autrement ôté, il s'en trouve un autre à sa place, le vaisseau ne laissera pas d'avoir la même sûreté, avec son chargement, et les lettres de mer auront la même vertu.

ARTICLE XXXIV.

Il a été d'ailleurs réglé et arrêté, que les bâtimens de l'une des deux nations, repris par des armateurs de l'autre, seront rendus au premier propriétaire, s'ils n'ont pas été en la puissance de l'ennemi durant l'espace de vingt-quatre heures, à charge par le dit propriétaire, de payer le tiers de la valeur du bâtiment repris, ainsi que de sa cargaison, canons et appareils; lequel tiers sera estimé à l'amiable par les parties intéressées, sinon, et faute de pouvoir convenir entr'elles, elles s'adresseront aux officiers de l'Amirauté du lieu où le corsaire reprenneur aura conduit le bâtiment repris.

Si le bâtiment repris a été en la puissance de l'ennemi au-delà de vingt-quatre heures, il appartiendra en entier à l'armateur reprenneur.

Dans le cas où un bâtiment aura été repris par un vaisseau ou bâtiment de guerre appartenant à Sa Majesté Britannique ou à Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne, il sera rendu au premier propriétaire, en payant le trentième de la valeur du bâtiment, de la cargaison, des canons et appareils, s'il a été repris dans les vingt-quatre heures, et le dixième, s'il a été repris après les vingt-quatre heures; lesquelles sommes seront distribuées, à titre de gratification, aux équipages des vaisseaux reprenneurs. L'estimation des trentième et dixième mentionnés ci-dessus, sera réglée conformément à ce qui est convenu au commencement de cet Article.

ARTICLE XXXV.

Toutes les fois que les Ambassadeurs de leurs Majestés susdites, tant d'une part que de l'autre, ou its cargo, in order to proceed on its voyage.

If the master of the ship named in the passports should happen to die, or be removed by any other cause, and another put in his place, the ships and goods laden thereon shall nevertheless be equally secure, and the passports shall remain in full force.

ARTICLE XXXIV.

It is further provided and agreed, that the ships of either of the two nations, retaken by the privateers of the other, shall be restored to the former owner, if they have not been in the power of the enemy for the space of four-and-twenty hours, subject to the payment by the said owner, of one third of the value of the ship retaken, and of its cargo, guns, and apparel; which third part shall be amicably adjusted by the parties concerned; but if not, and in case they should disagree, they shall make application to the officers of the Admiralty of the place where the privateer which retook the captured vessel shall have carried her.

If the ship retaken has been in the power of the enemy above four-and-twenty hours, she shall wholly belong to the privateer which retook her.

In case of a ship being retaken by any man-of-war belonging to His Britannic Majesty or to His Most Christian Majesty, it shall be restored to the former owner, on payment of the thirtieth part of the value of such ship, and of its cargo, guns, and apparel, if it was retaken within the four-and-twenty hours, and the tenth part if it was retaken after the four-and-twenty hours; which sums shall be distributed, as a reward, amongst the crews of the ships which shall have retaken such prize. The valuation of the thirtieth and tenth parts above mentioned shall be settled conformably to the regulations in the beginning of this Article.

ARTICLE XXXV.

Whensoever the Ambassadors of either of their said Majesties, or other their Ministers having a public quelqu'autre de leurs Ministres publics, qui résideront à la Cour de l'autre Prince, se plaindront de l'injustice des sentences qui auront été rendues, leurs Majestés respectivement les feront revoir et examiner en leur Conseil, à moins que le dit Conseil n'en eût déjà décidé, afin que l'on connaisse, avec certitude, si les ordonnances et les précautions prescrites au présent Traité auront été suivies et observées. Leurs dites Majestés auront soin pareillement d'y faire pourvoir pleinement, et de faire rendre justice, dans l'espace de trois mois, à chacun de ceux qui la demanderont. Et néanmoins avant ou après le premier jugement, et pendant la révision, les effets qui sont en litige ne pourront être, en aucune manière, vendus, ni déchargés, si ce n'est du consentement des parties intéressées, pour éviter toute sorte de dommage; et il sera rendu, de part et d'autre, des loix pour l'exécution du présent Article.

ARTICLE XXXVI.

S'il s'élève des différends sur la validité des prises, en sorte qu'il soit nécessaire d'en venir à une décision juridique, le juge ordonnera que les effets soient déchargés, qu'on en prenne un inventaire, et qu'on en fasse l'estimation; et l'on exigera des sûretés respectivement du capteur, de payer les frais, au cas que le navire ne fût point trouvé de bonne prise; du demandeur, de payer la valeur de la prise, au cas qu'elle soit trouvée valide; et ces sûretés étant données de part et d'autre, la prise sera livrée au demandeur. Mais si le demandeur refuse de donner des sûretés suffisantes, le juge ordonnera que la prise soit livrée au capteur, après avoir reçu de sa part des sûretés bonnes et suffisantes, qu'il payera la valeur entière de la dite prise, au cas qu'elle soit jugée illégale. Et l'exécution de la sentence du juge ne pourra point être suspendue en vertu d'aucun appel, lorsque la partie contre laquelle un tel appel sera fait, soit le demandeur, soit le capteur, aura donné des sûretés suffisantes, qu'il restituera le vaisseau ou les effets, ou bien la valeur du dit vaisseau ou effets, à la partie appellante, au cas que la sentence fût rendue en sa faveur.

character, and residing at the Court of the other Prince, shall complain of the injustice of the sentences which have been given, their Majesties shall respectively cause the same to be revised and re-examined in their Councils, unless their Councils should already have decided thereupon, that it may appear with certainty whether the directions and provisions prescribed in this Treaty have been followed and observed. Their Majesties shall likewise take care that this matter be effectually provided for, and that justice be done to every complainant within the space of three months. However, before or after judgment given, and pending the revision thereof, it shall not be lawful to sell the goods in dispute, or to unlade them, unless with the consent of the persons concerned, for preventing any kind of loss; and laws shall be enacted on both sides for the execution of the present Article.

ARTICLE XXXVI.

If any differences shall arise respecting the legality of prizes, so that a judicial decision shall become necessary, the judge shall direct the effects to be unladen, an inventory and appraisement to be made thereof, and security to be required respectively from the captor for paying the costs, in case the ship should not be declared lawful prize; and from the claimant for paying the value of the prize, in case it should be declared lawful; which securities being given by both parties, the prize shall be delivered up to the claimant. But if the claimant should refuse to give sufficient security, the judge shall direct the prize to be delivered to the captor, after having received from him good and sufficient security for paying the full value of the said prize, in case it should be adjudged illegal. Nor shall the execution of the sentence of the judge be suspended by reason of any appeal, when the party against whom such appeal shall be brought, whether claimant or captor, shall have given sufficient security for restoring the ship or effects, or the value of such ship or effects, to the appellant, in case judgment should be given in his favour.

ARTICLE XXXVII.

S'il arrive que des vaisseaux de guerre, ou des navires marchands, contraints par la tempête, ou autre accident, échouent contre des rochers ou des écueils sur les côtes de l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, qu'ils s'y brisent, et qu'ils y fassent naufrage, tout ce qui aura été sauvé des vaisseaux, de leurs agrès et appareils, effets ou marchandises, ou le prix qui en sera provenu, le tout étant réclamé par les propriétaires, ou autres ayant charge et pouvoir de leur part, sera restitué de bonne foi, en payant seulement les frais qui auront été faits pour les sauver, ainsi qu'il aura été réglé, par l'une et l'autre partie, pour le droit de sauvetage ; sauf, cependant, les droits et coutumes de l'une et de l'autre nation, lesquels toutefois on s'occupera à abolir, ou au moins à modifier, dans le cas où ils seraient contraires à ce qui est convenu par le présent Article ; et leurs dites Majestés, de part et d'autre, interposeront leur autorité pour faire châtier sévèrement ceux de leurs sujets qui auront inhumainement profité d'un pareil malheur.

ARTICLE XXXVIII.

Les sujets de part et d'autre pourront se servir de tels avocats, procureurs, notaires, solliciteurs et facteurs que bon leur semblera ; à l'effet de quoi ces dits avocats et autres susdits seront commis par les juges ordinaires, lorsqu'il en sera besoin et que les dits juges en seront requis.

ARTICLE XXXIX.

Et pour plus grande sûreté et liberté du commerce et de la navigation, on est convenu en outre, que ni le Roi de la Grande Bretagne, ni le Roi Très Chrétien, non seulement ne recevront dans aucunes de leurs rades, ports, villes ou places, des pirates ou des forbans quels qu'ils puissent être, et ne souffriront qu'aucun de leurs sujets, citoyens et habitants, de part et d'autre, les reçoivent et protègent, dans ces mêmes ports, les retirent dans leurs maisons, ou les aident en façon quel-

ARTICLE XXXVII.

In case any ships of war or merchantmen, forced by storms or other accidents, be driven on rocks or shelves on the coasts of either of the High Contracting Parties, and should there be dashed to pieces and shipwrecked ; all such parts of the said ships, or of the furniture or apparel thereof, as also of the goods and merchandizes as shall be saved, or the produce thereof, shall be faithfully restored, upon the same being claimed by the proprietors, or their factors, duly authorized, paying only the expenses incurred in the preservation thereof, according to the rate of salvage settled on both sides ; saving at the same time the rights and customs of each nation, the abolition or modification of which shall however be treated upon, in the cases where they shall be contrary to the stipulations of the present Article ; and their Majesties will mutually interpose their authority, that such of their subjects, as shall be so inhuman as to take advantage of any such misfortune, may be severely punished.

ARTICLE XXXVIII.

It shall be free for the subjects of each party to employ such advocates, attornies, notaries, solicitors, and factors as they shall think fit ; to which end the said advocates and others above mentioned, shall be appointed by the ordinary judges, if it be needful and the judges be thereunto required.

ARTICLE XXXIX.

And for the greater security and liberty of commerce and navigation, it is further agreed, that both the King of Great Britain, and the Most Christian King, shall not only refuse to receive any pirates or sea-rovers whatsoever into any of their havens, ports, cities or towns, or permit any of their subjects, citizens or inhabitants, on either part to receive or protect them in their ports, to harbour them in their houses, or to assist them in any manner whatsoever ; but further they shall cause conque; mais encore ils feront arrêter et punir toutes ces sortes de pirates et de forbans, et tous ceux qui les auront reçus, cachés ou aidés, des peines qu'ils auront méritées, pour inspirer de la crainte, et servir d'exemple aux autres. Et tous leurs vaisseaux, les effets, et marchandises enlevés par eux, et conduits dans les ports de l'un ou de l'autre royaume, seront arrêtés, autant qu'il pourra s'en découvrir, et seront rendus à leur propriétaires, ou à leurs facteurs ayant leur pouvoir ou procuration par écrit, après avoir prouvé la propriété devant les Juges de l'Amirauté, par des certificats suffisans, quand bien même ces effets seraient passés en d'autres mains par vente, s'il est prouvé que les acheteurs ont su ou dû savoir que c'était des effets enlevés en piraterie. Et généralement tous les vaisseaux et marchandises de quelque nature qu'ils soient, qui seront pris en pleine mer, seront conduits dans quelque port de l'un ou de l'autre Souverain, et seront confiés à la garde des officiers de ce même port, pour être rendus entiers au véritable propriétaire, aussitôt qu'il sera dûment et suffisamment reconnu.

ARTICLE XL.

Les vaisseaux de guerre de leurs Majestés, et ceux qui auront été armés en guerre par leurs sujets, pourront en toute liberté conduire où bon leur semblera, les vaisseaux et les marchandises qu'ils auront pris sur les ennemis, sans être obligés de payer aucun droit, soit aux Sieurs Amiraux, soit aux juges, quels qu'ils soient; sans qu'aussi les dites prises, qui abordent et entrent dans les ports de leurs dites Majestés, puissent être arrêtées ou saisies, ni que les visiteurs ou autres officiers des lieux puissent les visiter, et prendre connaissance de la validité des dites prises: en outre il leur sera permis de mettre à la voile en quelque tems que ce soit, de partir, et d'emmener les prises au lieu porté par les commissions ou patentes que les capitaines des dits navires de guerre seront obligés de faire apparoir; et au contraire il ne sera donné ni azile, ni retraite, dans leurs ports, à ceux qui auront fait des prises all such pirates and sea-rovers, and all persons who shall receive, conceal or assist them, to be brought to condign punishment, for a terror and example to others. And all their ships, with the goods or merchandizes taken by them, and brought into the ports of either kingdom, shall be seized as far as they can be discovered, and shall be restored to the owners, or their factors duly authorized or deputed by them in writing, proper evidence being first given in the Court of Admiralty, for proving the property, even in case such effects should have passed into other hands by sale, if it be proved that the buyers knew, or might have known, that they had been piratically taken. And generally all ships and merchandizes, of what nature soever, which may be taken on the high seas, shall be brought into some port of either kingdom, and delivered into the custody of the officers of that port, that they may be restored entire to the true proprietor, as soon as due and sufficient proof shall have been made concerning the property thereof.

ARTICLE XL.

It shall be lawful, as well for the ships of war of their Majesties as for privateers belonging to their subjects, to carry whithersoever they please the ships and goods taken from their enemies, without being obliged to pay any fee to the officers of the Admiralty, or to any judges whatever; nor shall the said prizes, when they arrive at and enter the ports of their said Majesties, be detained or seized; neither shall the searchers, or other officers of those places, visit or take cognizance of the validity of such prizes; but they shall be at liberty to hoist sail at any time, to depart, and to carry their prizes to the place mentioned in the commissions or patents which the commanders of such ships of war shall be obliged to show: on the contrary no shelter or refuge shall be given in their ports to such as have made a prize upon the subjects of either of their Majesties; but if forced by stress of weather, or the dangers of the sea, sur les sujets de l'une ou de l'autre de leurs Majestés, mais y étant entrés par nécessité de tempêtes ou de périls de la mer, on emploiera fortement les soins nécessaires, afin qu'ils en sortent et s'en retirent le plus tôt qu'il sera possible, autant que cela ne sera point contraire aux Traités antérieurs faits à cet égard avec d'autres Souverains ou États.

to enter therein, particular care shall be taken to hasten their departure, and to cause them to retire from thence as soon as possible, as far as it is not repugnant to former Treaties made in this respect with other Sovereigns or States.

ARTICLE XLI.

Leurs dites Majestés ne souffriront point que sur les côtes, à la portée de canon, et dans les ports et rivières de leur obéissance, des navires et des marchandises des sujets de l'autre soient pris par des vaisseaux de guerre, ou par d'autres qui seront pourvus de patentes de quelque Prince, république, ou ville quelconque: Et au cas que cela arrive, l'une et l'autre partie emploieront leurs forces unies pour faire réparer le dommage causé.

ARTICLE XLI.

Neither of theirsaid Majesties shall permit the ships or goods belonging to the subjects of the other to be taken within cannon-shot of the coast, or in the ports or rivers of their dominions, by ships of war, or others having commission from any Prince, republic, or city whatsoever: But in case it should so happen, both parties shall employ their united force to obtain reparation of the damage thereby occasioned.

ARTICLE XLII.

Que s'il est prouvé que celui qui aura fait une prise, ait employé quelque genre de torture contre le capitaine, l'équipage, ou autres personnes qui se seront trouvées dans quelque vaisseau appartenant aux sujets de l'autre partie, en ce cas, non seulement ce vaisseau, et les personnes, marchandises et effets quels qu'ils puissent être, seront relâchés aussitôt, sans aucun délai, et remis en pleine liberté, mais même ceux qui seront convaincus d'un crime si énorme, aussi bien que leurs complices, seront punis des plus grandes peines et proportionnées à leurs fautes: ce que le Roi de la Grande Bretagne et le Roi Très Chrétien s'obligent réciproquement de faire observer, sans aucun égard pour quelque personne que ce soit.

ARTICLE XLII.

But if it shall appear that the captor made use of any kind of torture upon the master of the ship, the crew, or others who shall be on board any ship belonging to the subjects of the other party, in such case not only the ship itself, together with the persons, merchandizes and goods whatsoever, shall be forthwith released without any delay, and set entirely free, but also such as shall be convicted of so enormous a crime, together with their accomplices, shall suffer the most severe punishment suitable to their offences: this the King of Great Britain and the Most Christian King mutually engage shall be observed, without any respect of persons whatsoever.

ARTICLE XLIII.

Il sera libre respectivement à leurs Majestés d'établir dans les royaumes et pays de l'une et de l'autre, pour la commodité de leurs sujets qui y négocient, des Consuls nationaux, qui jouiront du droit, immunité et liberté qui leur appartiennent à

ARTICLE XLIII.

Their Majesties shall respectively be at liberty, for the advantage of their subjects trading to the kingdoms and dominions of either of them, to appoint therein national Consuls, who shall enjoy the right, immunity, and liberty belonging to raison de leurs exercices et fonctions; et l'on conviendra dans la suite des lieux où l'on pourra établir les dits Consuls, ainsi que de la nature et de l'étendue de leurs fonctions. La Convention relative à cet objet sera faite immédiatement après la signature du présent Traité, et sera censée en faire partie.

them, by reason of their duties and their functions; and places shall hereafter be agreed upon where the said Consuls shall be established, as well as the nature and extent of their functions. The Convention relative to this point shall be concluded immediately after the signature of the present Treaty, of which it shall be deemed to constitute a part.

ARTICLE XLIV.

Il est aussi convenu, que dans tout ce qui concerne la charge et la décharge des vaisseaux, la sûreté des marchandises, effets et biens, les successions des biens mobiliers, comme aussi la protection des individus, leur liberté personnelle, et l'administration de la justice, les sujets des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes auront, dans les Etats respectifs, les mêmes privilèges, libertés et droits, que la nation la plus favorisée.

ARTICLE XLIV.

It is also agreed, that in whatever relates to the lading and unlading of ships, the safety of merchandizes, goods and effects, the succession to personal estates, as well as the protection of individuals and their personal liberty, as also the administration of justice, the subjects of the two High Contracting Parties shall enjoy in their respective dominions the same privileges, liberties, and rights, as the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE XLV.

S'il survenait à l'avenir, par inadvertence ou autrement, quelques inobservations ou contraventions au présent Traité, de part ou d'autre, l'amitié et la bonne intelligence ne seront pas d'abord rompues pour cela, mais ce Traité subsistera, et aura son entier effet, et l'on procurera des remèdes convenables pour lever les inconvéniens, comme aussi pour faire réparer les contraventions; et si les sujets de l'un ou de l'autre royaume sont pris en faute, ils seront seuls punis et sévèrement châtiés.

ARTICLE XLV.

If hereafter it shall happen, through inadvertency or otherwise, that any infractions or contraventions of the present Treaty should be committed on either side, the friendship and good understanding shall not immediately thereupon be interrupted, but this Treaty shall subsist in all its force, and proper remedies shall be procured for removing the inconveniences, as likewise for the reparation of the contraventions; and if the subjects of either kingdom shall be found guilty thereof, they only shall be punished and severely chastised.

ARTICLE XLVI.

Sa Majesté Britannique et Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne se sont conservées la faculté de revoir et d'examiner de nouveau les différentes stipulations de ce Traité, après le terme de douze années à compter du jour où il aura été passé respectivement dans la Grande Bretagne et en Irlande, des loix pour son exécution, de proposer et de faire tels changemens que le tems et les circonstances pourront avoir rendu convenables ou nécessaires, pour

ARTICLE XLVI.

His Britannic Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty have reserved the right of revising and re-examining the several stipulations of this Treaty after the term of twelve years, to be computed from the day of passing laws for its execution in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, to propose and make such alterations as the times and circumstances may have rendered proper or necessary for the commercial interests of their spec-les intérêts du commerce de leurs sujets respectifs; et cette révision devra être effectuée dans l'espace de douze mois; après lequel tems le présent Traité sera de nul effet, sans cependant que la bonne harmonie et la correspondance amicale entre les deux nations en souffrent aucune altération.

ARTICLE XLVII.

Le présent Traité sera ratifié et confirmé par Sa Majesté Britannique et par Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne, deux mois, ou plus tôt, si faire se peut, après l'échange des signatures entre les Plénipotentiaires.

En foi de quoi, nous soussignés Commissaires et Plénipotentiaires du Roi de la Grande Bretagne et du Roi Très Chrétien, avons signé le présent Traité de notre main, et y avons apposé les cachets de nos armes.

Convention between His Britannic Majesty and the Most Christian King. Signed at Versailles, January 15, 1787.

LE Roi de la Grande Bretagne, et le Roi Très Chrétien, voulant, conformément aux Articles VI et XLIII du Traité de Navigation et de Commerce signé à Versailles le 26 Septembre, 1786, éclaircir certains points sur lesquels on s'est réservé de convenir, leurs Majestés Britannique et Très Chrétienne, toujours disposées à resserrer plus particulièrement l'heureuse intelligence qui les unit, ont nommé pour cet effet leurs Plénipotentiaires respectifs, savoir, de la part de Sa Majesté Britannique, le Sieur Guillaume Eden, Membre de ses Conseils Privés dans la Grande Bretagne et en Irlande, Membre de son Parlement Britannique, et son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne; et de la part de Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne, le Sieur Comte de Vergennes, Ministre et Secrétaire d'Etat ayant le Département des Affaires Etrangères, et Chef de son Conseil Royal des Finances; lesquels, après s'être communiqués leurs pleinpouvoirs respectifs, sont convenus des Articles suivants:

ARTICLE I.

Leurs Majestés ayant statué dans l'Article VI du dit Traité, "Qu'on classera les droits sur la quincaillerie et la tableterie (en Anglais, hardware, cutlery, cabinet-ware et turnery) et sur tous les ouvrages gros et menus de fer, d'acier, de cuivre et d'airain; et que le plus haut droit ne passera pas 10 pour cent de la valeur," il est convenu, que la tableterie (en Anglais, cabinet-ware et turnery) et tout ce qui est compris sous ces dénominations, de même que les instrumens de musique, payeront 10 pour cent de leur valeur.

THE King of Great Britain, and the Most Christian King, being willing, in conformity to Articles VI and XLIII of the Treaty of Navigation and Commerce signed at Versailles the 26th of September, 1786, to explain and settle certain points which had been reserved, their Britannic and Most Christian Majesties, always disposed more particularly to confirm the good understanding in which they are happily united, have named for that purpose their respective Plenipotentiaries, to wit, on the part of His Britannic Majesty, William Eden, Esq., Privy Councillor in Great Britain and Ireland, Member of the British Parliament, and his Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Most Christian Majesty; and on the part of His Most Christian Majesty, the Count de Vergennes, Minister and Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs, and Chief of the Royal Council of Finances; who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, have agreed upon the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

Their Majesties having stipulated in Article VI of the said Treaty, "That the duties on hardware, cutlery, cabinet-ware and turnery, and all works, both heavy and light, of iron, steel, copper and brass, shall be classed; and that the highest duty shall not exceed 10 per cent. ad valorem," it is agreed, that cabinet-ware and turnery, and everything that is included under those denominations, and also musical instruments, shall pay 10 per cent. ad valorem.

Tous les articles composés de fer ou d'acier purs ou mélangés, ou travaillés, ou montés avec d'autres substances, dont la valeur ne sera pas au-dessus de soixante livres tournois, ou de cinquante schellings le quintal, payeront seulement 5 pour cent de leur valeur; et tous les autres objets, comme boutons, boucles, couteaux, ciseaux, et tous les différents articles compris dans la quincaillerie (en Anglais, hardware et cutlery) ainsi que tous autres ouvrages de fer et d'acier, de cuivre et d'airain, purs ou mélangés, ou travaillés, ou montés avec d'autres substances, payeront 10 pour cent de leur valeur.

Si l'un des deux Souverains juge à propos d'admettre les dits articles, ou quelques uns seulement de quelque autre nation, à raison de leur utilité, sous un droit plus modéré, il fera participer au dit rabais les sujets de l'autre Souverain, afin qu'aucune nation étrangère n'ait sur ce point de préférence à leur préjudice.

Par les ouvrages de fer, d'acier, de cuivre, et d'airain, on n'entend point le fer en barre, le fer en gueuse (en Anglais, bar iron et pig iron) et en général aucune sorte de fer, d'acier, de cuivre, ou d'airain, qui sont dans l'état de matière première.

ARTICLE II.

Leurs Majestés ayant aussi statué, dans l'Article VI, "Que pour d'autant mieux assurer la perception exacte des droits énoncés au Tarif, payables sur la valeur des marchandises, elles conviendront entre elles, non seulement de la forme des déclarations, mais aussi des moyens propres à prévenir la fraude sur la véritable valeur des dites denrées et marchandises," il est convenu que chaque déclaration sera donnée par écrit, et signée par le marchand, le propriétaire ou le facteur, qui répond des marchandises à leur entrée, laquelle déclaration contiendra un détail exact des dites marchandises, et de leurs emballages, des marques, numéros et chiffres, et du contenu de chaque ballot ou caisse, attestera qu'elles sont du produit du sol, ou des manufactures du royaume d'où elles sont impor-

F

All Articles made of iron or steel, pure or mixed, or worked or mounted with other substances, not exceeding in value sixty livres tournois, or fifty shillings per quintal, shall pay only 5 per cent. ad valorem; and all other wares, as buttons, buckles, knives, scissars, and all the different articles included under the description of hardware and cutlery, as also all other works of iron, steel, copper, and brass, pure or mixed, or worked or mounted with other substances, shall pay 10 per cent. ad valorem.

If either of the two Sovereigns shall think proper to admit the said articles, or only some of them, from any other nation, by reason of their utility, at a lower duty, the subjects of the other Sovereign shall be allowed to participate in such diminution, in order that no foreign nation may enjoy in this respect any preference to their disadvantage.

The works of iron, steel, copper, and brass, above mentioned, are not to be understood to extend to bar-iron, pig-iron, or in general to any kind of iron, steel, copper, or brass, in the state of the raw material.

ARTICLE II.

Their Majesties having also stipulated in Article VI, "That for the better securing the due collection of the duties payable ad valorem, which are specified in the Tariff, they will concert with each other, the form of the declarations to be made, and the proper means of preventing fraud with respect to the real value of the goods and merchandizes," it is agreed that each declaration shall be given in writing, signed by the merchant, owner, or factor, who answers for the merchandizes at their entry; which declaration shall contain an exact list of the said merchandizes, and of their packages, of the marks, numbers, and cyphers, and of the contents of each bale or case, and shall certify that they are of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the kingdom from whence they are tées, et fera mention de la juste et véritable valeur des dites marchandises, afin d'en payer les droits en conséquence. Que les officiers de la douane où la déclaration sera faite, auront la liberté de faire telle visite qu'ils jugeront à propos des dites marchandises, à leur descente à terre, non seulement pour constater les faits exposés dans la dite déclaration, que les marchandises sont le produit du pays y mentionné, et que l'exposé de leur valeur et quantité est exact, mais aussi pour prévenir l'introduction clandestine d'autres marchandises dans les mêmes ballots ou caisses : Bien entendu, cependant, que les dites visites seront faites avec tous les égards possibles pour la commodité des commerçants, et pour la conservation des dites marchandises.

Si les officiers des douanes ne sont pas contents de l'estimation faite dans la dite déclaration de la valeur des dites marchandises, ils auront la liberté, avec le consentement du chef de la douane du port, ou de tel autre officier nommé pour cet effet, de prendre les dites marchandises, suivant l'estimation faite par la déclaration, en accordant au marchand ou propriétaire un excédant de 10 pour cent, et lui restituant ce qu'il pourrait avoir payé pour les droits sur les dites marchandises. Dans ce cas, le montant en sera payé sans délai, par la douane du port, s'il s'agit d'objets dont la valeur n'excède pas quatre cent quatre-vingt livres tournois, ou vingt livres sterling; et dans quinze jours, au plus tard, si leur valeur excède la dite somme.

Et s'il arrive qu'il y ait des doutes, ou sur la valeur des dites marchandises, ou sur le pays dont elles sont le produit, les officiers de la douane du port donneront leur décision là-dessus, avec la plus grande expédition possible, et le tems employé à cet effet n'excèdera, en aucun cas, l'espace de huit jours, dans les ports où les officiers ayant la régie principale des droits sont établis, ni celui de quinze jours dans quel autre port que ce soit.

Il est supposé et entendu, que les marchandises admises par le présent Traité sont respectivement imported, and shall also express the true and real value of the said merchandizes, in order that the duties may be paid in consequence thereof. That the officers of the custom-house where the declaration may be made, shall be at liberty to make such examination as they shall think proper of the said merchandizes, upon their being landed, not only for the purpose of verifying the facts alledged in the said declaration, that the merchandizes are of the produce of the country therein mentioned, and that the statement of their value and quantity is exact, but also for that of preventing the clandestine introduction of other merchandizes in the same bales or cases: Provided nevertheless that such examinations shall be made with every possible attention to the convenience of the traders, and to the preservation of the said merchandizes.

In case the officers of the customs should not be satisfied with the valuation made of the merchandizes in the said declaration, they shall be at liberty, with the consent of the principal officer of the customs at the port, or of such other officer as shall be appointed for that purpose, to take the said merchandizes according to the valuation made by the declaration, allowing to the merchant or owner an overplus of 10 per cent., and refunding to him the duties he may have paid for the said merchandizes. In which case the whole amount shall be paid without delay by the custom-house of the port, if the value of the effects in question shall not exceed four hundred and eighty livres tournois, or twenty pounds sterling; and within fifteen days, at latest, if their value shall exceed that sum.

And if doubts should happen to arise, either respecting the value of the said merchandizes, or the country of which they are the produce, the officers of the customs at the port shall come to a determination thereupon, with all possible dispatch, and no greater space of time shall be employed for that purpose, in any case, than eight days, in the ports where the officers who have the principal direction of the customs reside, and fifteen days in any other port whatsoever.

It is supposed and understood that the merchandizes admitted by the present Treaty shall be respectively du crû, du sol, ou du produit des manufactures des Etats des deux Souverains en Europe.

Pour obliger les commerçants à être exacts dans les déclarations requises par le présent Article, ainsi que pour prévenir tout doute qui pourrait s'élever sur la partie de l'Article X du dit Traité, qui porte que s'il y a une omission d'effets dans la déclaration fournie par le maître du navire, ils ne seront pas sujets à la confiscation, à moins qu'il y ait une apparence manifeste de fraude; il est entendu que dans un tel cas, les dits effets seront confisqués, à moins que des preuves satisfaisantes ne soient données aux officiers de la douane, qu'il n'y avait aucune intention de fraude.

ARTICLE III.

Pour prévenir l'introduction des toiles de coton, manufacturées dans les Indes Orientales, ou dans d'autres pays, comme si elles l'étaient dans les Etats respectifs des deux Souverains en Europe, il est convenu, que les toiles de coton manufacturées dans les dits Etats, pour être exportées de l'un chez l'autre respectivement, auront aux deux bouts de chaque pièce une marque particulière, déterminée de concert par les deux Gouvernemens, tissée avec l'étoffe, de laquelle marque les Gouvernemens respectifs donneront avis neuf mois d'avance aux manufacturiers; et la dite marque sera changé de tems en tems, selon que le cas l'exigera. Il est aussi convenu, que jusqu'à ce que la dite précaution puisse être mise en effet, les dites toiles de coton exportées mutuellement seront accompagnées d'un certificat des officiers de la douane, ou de tel autre officier nommé à cet effet, pour attester qu'elles ont été fabriquées dans le pays qui les exporte; et aussi qu'elles sont revêtues des marques déjà prescrites dans les pays respectifs, pour distinguer de telles toiles de celles qui viennent d'autres pays.

ARTICLE IV.

En réglant les droits sur les batistes et les linons on a entendu que leur largeur n'excèdera point, of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the dominions of the two Sovereigns in Europe.

To oblige the traders to be accurate in the declarations required by the present Article, as also to prevent any doubt that might arise on that part of Article X of the said Treaty, which provides that if any of the effects are omitted in the declaration delivered by the master of the ship, they shall not be liable to confiscation, unless there be a manifest appearance of fraud, it is understood that, in such case, the said effects shall be confiscated, unless satisfactory proof be given to the officers of the customs that there was not any intention of fraud.

ARTICLE III.

In order to prevent the introduction of calicoes, manufactured in the East Indies, or in other countries, as if they had been manufactured in the respective dominions of the two Sovereigns in Europe, it is agreed, that the calicoes manufactured in the said dominions for exportation from one country to the other respectively, shall have at the two ends of each piece a particular mark, woven in the piece, to be settled in concert by the two Governments, of which mark the respective Governments shall give nine months' previous notice to the manufacturers; and the said mark shall be altered from time to time, as the case may require. It is further agreed, that until the said precaution can be put in execution, the said calicoes mutually exported shall be accompanied by a certificate of the officers of the customs, or of such other officer as shall be appointed for that purpose, declaring that they are fabricated in the country from whence they were exported, and also that they are furnished with the marks already prescribed in the respective countries, to distinguish such calicoes from those which come from other countries.

ARTICLE IV.

In settling the duties upon cambrics and lawns, it is understood that the breadth should not exceed, for pour les batistes, sept-huitièmes de verge, mesure d'Angleterre (environ trois quarts d'aune de France), et pour les linons, une verge et un quart, mesure d'Angleterre (une aune de France), et si dans la suite on en fait d'une largeur qui excède celles-ci, ils payeront un droit de 10 pour cent de leur valeur.

the cambrics, seven-eighths of a yard, English measure (about three quarters of an ell of France), and for the lawns, one yard and a quarter, English measure (one ell of France); and if any shall hereafter be made of a greater breadth than what is above mentioned, they shall pay a duty of 10 per cent. ad valorem.

ARTICLE V.

Il est également convenu, que ce qui est stipulé dans l'Article XVIII du Traité ne sera pas censé déroger aux privilèges, réglemens, et usages déjà établis dans les villes ou ports des Etats respectifs des deux Souverains: et aussi que par l'Article XXV du dit Traité, on n'entend point qu'il ait rapport à autre chose, sinon aux vaisseaux suspects de porter, en tems de guerre, aux ennemis de l'une ou de l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes, des Articles défendus, appelés de contrebande; et le dit Article ne pourra empêcher les visites des officiers des douanes, pour prévenir le commerce illicite dans les Etats respectifs.

ARTICLE V.

It is also agreed that the stipulations in Article XVIII of the Treaty shall not be construed to derogate from the privileges, regulations, and usages already established in the cities or ports of the respective dominions of the two Sovereigns: and further, that Article XXV of the said Treaty shall be construed to relate only to ships suspected of carrying, in time of war, to the enemies of either of the High Contracting Parties, any prohibited article denominated contraband; and the said Article is not to hinder the examinations of the officers of the customs, for the purpose of preventing illicit trade in the respective dominions.

ARTICLE VI.

Leurs Majestés ayant statué par l'Article XLIII du dit Traité, de déterminer la nature et l'étendue des fonctions des Consuls, "et qu'une Convention à cet objet serait faite immédiatement après la signature du présent Traité, et serait censée en faire partie," il est convenu qu'on rédigerait cette Convention ultérieure dans l'espace de deux mois, et qu'en attendant, les Consuls-Généraux, les Consuls, et les Vice-Consuls se conformeront aux usages déjà pratiqués relativement au Consulat dans les Etats respectifs des deux Souverains; et qu'ils auront tous les privilèges, droits et immunités que leur qualité suppose, et qui sont donnés aux Consuls-Généraux, Consuls, et Vice-Consuls de la nation la plus favorisée.

ARTICLE VI.

Their Majesties having stipulated, by Article XLIII of the said Treaty, that the nature and extent of the functions of the Consuls should be determined, "and that a Convention relative to this point should be concluded immediately after the signature of the present Treaty, of which it should be deemed to constitute a part," it is agreed that the said ulterior Convention shall be settled within the space of two months, and that, in the mean time, the Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls shall conform to the usages which are now observed, relative to the Consulship, in the respective dominions of the two Sovereigns; and that they shall enjoy all the privileges, rights, and immunities belonging to their office, and which are allowed to the Consuls-Generals, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE VII.

Il sera libre aux sujets de Sa Majesté Britannique de poursuivre en France leurs débiteurs, pour le recouvrement de dettes contractées dans les Etats de Sa dite Majesté, ou ailleurs, en Europe, et d'y intenter action contre eux, en se conformant aux voyes de droit usitées dans le royaume: Bien entendu que le même usage aura lieu pour les Français dans les Etats Européens de Sa Majesté Britannique.

ARTICLE VII.

It shall be lawful for the subjects of His Britannic Majesty to prosecute their debtors in France, for the recovery of debts contracted in the dominions of His said Majesty, or elsewhere, in Europe, and there to bring actions against them, in conformity to the practice of law in use in the kingdom: Provided that there shall be the like usage in favour of French subjects in the European dominions of His Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE VIII.

Les Articles de la présente Convention seront ratifiés et confirmés par Sa Majesté Britannique, et par Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne, dans un mois, ou plus tôt, si faire se peut, après l'échange des signatures entre les Plénipotentiaires.

En foi de quoi, nous Ministres Plénipotentiaires avons signé la présente Convention, et y avons fait apposer le cachet de nos armes.

Fait à Versailles, le quinze Janvier, mil sept cent quatre-vingt-sept.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Articles of the present Convention shall be ratified and confirmed by His Britannic Majesty, and by His Most Christian Majesty, in one month, or sooner, if it can be done, after the exchange of signatures between the Plenipotentiaries.

In witness whereof, we the Ministers Plenipotentiary have signed the present Convention, and have caused the seals of our arms to be set thereto.

Viscount Palmerston to Count Ste. Aulaire.

M. l'Ambassadeur,

Foreign Office, January 20, 1847.

WITH reference to the verbal communications which I have had with your Excellency upon the affairs of Tahiti, I have the honour to state to your Excellency that I have received from almost every part of Great Britain the most numerous and earnest representations, requesting Her Majesty's Government to obtain from that of France permission that such of the people of Tahiti as may wish to withdraw from the island and to remove and settle elsewhere, may do so without molestation; carrying with them of course any moveable property which they may possess, or being allowed to dispose of that or any other property which they may have in the island, if they wish to do so.

Her Majesty's Government cannot imagine that the Government of France can have any objection to consent to this request, a compliance with which will afford very great satisfaction to a large portion of the British nation, while at the same time it would probably put an end to local differences and contests which must be more or less embarrassing to the Government of France.

It will afford Her Majesty's Government great pleasure if your Excellency can enable me to state to the memorialists that the above-mentioned permission will be granted by the French Government to the people of Tahiti.

I am, &c.

Count Ste. Aulaire to Viscount Palmerston.

Londres, le 1 Février, 1847.

LE Soussigné, Ambassadeur Extraordinaire et Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté le Roi des Français près Sa Majesté Britannique, a reçu la note que son Excellence le Vicomte Palmerston, Principal Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour les Affaires Etrangères, a bien voulu lui adresser, le 20 Janvier dernier, pour lui exprimer le désir de savoir si les habitants de Tahiti qui voudraient quitter cette île pour s'établir ailleurs, pourraient s'en éloigner sans opposition de la part des autorités locales.

Le Soussigné est en mesure d'annoncer à son Excellence le Vicomte Palmerston, que, dès le 2 Décembre dernier, M. le Ministre de la Marine et des Colonies a écrit à M. le Gouverneur des établissements Français de l'Océanie, pour lui prescrire de n'opposer aucun obstacle à l'émigration vers les îles du nord-ouest des indigènes de Tahiti qui demanderaient à abandonner l'île, dans la vue de se soustraire à l'autorité du Protectorat.

Le Soussigné se félicite d'avoir à annoncer à son Excellence Lord Palmerston une décision qui lui sera agréable, et dans laquelle son Excellence verra une nouvelle preuve de la modération et de l'esprit de conciliation que le Gouvernement du Roi apportera toujours dans ses rapports avec les naturels de Tahiti.

London, February 1, 1847.

THE Undersigned, &c., has received the note which his Excellency Viscount Palmerston, &c. addressed to him on the 20th of January last, and in which he expressed a desire to learn whether such of the inhabitants of Tahiti as might wish to quit that island in order to establish themselves elsewhere, would be allowed to depart therefrom without opposition on the part of the local authorities.

The Undersigned is enabled to announce to his Excellency Viscount Palmerston, that as long ago as the 2nd of December last, the Minister of the Marine and Colonies wrote to the Governor of the French establishments of Oceania, instructing him to offer no obstacle to the emigration to the islands of the north-west, of such of the natives of Tahiti as might desire to depart from that island with the view of withdrawing from the authority of the Protectorate.

The Undersigned therefore congratulates himself on having to communicate to his Excellency Lord Palmerston a decision which will be satisfactory to him, and in which his Excellency will see a new proof of the moderation and of the spirit of conciliation which the Government of the King will always manifest in its relations with the natives of Tahiti.

He avails, &c.

Declaration of the Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain and France, acknowledging the Independence of the Islands of Huahine, Raiatea, and Borabora, and of the small Islands adjacent thereto.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the French, being desirous of removing a cause of discussion between their respective Governments, relative to the islands in the Pacific Ocean which are hereinafter designated, have thought proper reciprocally to engage:

1. Formally to acknowledge the independence of the Islands of Huahine, Raiatea, and Borabora (to the leeward of Tahiti), and of the small islands adjacent to and dependent upon those islands.

2. Never to take possession of the said islands, nor of any one or more of them, either absolutely, or under the title of a Protectorate, or in any other form whatever.

3. Never to acknowledge that a Chief or Prince reigning in Tahiti can at the same time reign in any one or more of the other islands above mentioned; nor, on the other hand, that a Chief or Prince reigning in any one or more of those other islands can reign at the same time in Tahiti; the reciprocal independence of the islands above mentioned, and of the Island of Tahiti and its dependencies, being established as a principle.

The Undersigned, Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of the French at the Court of London, being furnished with the necessary powers, hereby declare, in consequence, that their said Majesties take reciprocally that engagement.

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi des Français, désirant écarter une cause de discussion entre leurs Gouvernemens respectifs, au sujet des îles de l'Océan Pacifique désignées ci-après, ont cru devoir s'engager réciproquement:

1°. A reconnaître formellement l'indépendance des îles de Huahine, Raiatea, et Borabora (sous le vent de Tahiti), et des petites îles adjacentes qui dépendent de celles-ci.

2°. A ne jamais prendre possession des dites îles, ou d'une ou plusieurs d'entre elles, soit absolument, soit à titre de Protectorat, ou sous aucune autre forme quelconque.

3°. A ne jamais reconnaître qu'un Chef ou Prince régnant à Tahiti puisse en même tems régner sur une ou plusieurs des autres îles susdites; et réciproquement, qu'un Chef ou Prince régnant dans une ou plusieurs de ces dernières, puisse régner en même tems à Tahiti; l'indépendance réciproque des îles désignées ci-dessus, et de l'Île de Tahiti et dépendances, étant posée en principe.

Les Soussignés, Principal Secrétaire d'Etat pour les Affaires Etrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique, et le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté le Roi des Français près la Cour de Londres, munis des pouvoirs nécessaires, déclarent en conséquence par les présentes, que leurs dites Majestés prennent réciproquement cet engagement.

In witness whereof the Undersigned have signed the present Declaration, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

CONVENTION
AND THE
KING OF THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

Signed at Honolulu, in English and in the language of the Sandwich Islands, March 26, 1846.

IT being desirable that a general Convention should be substituted for the various Instruments of mutual Agreement at present existing between Great Britain and the Sandwich Islands, the following Articles have, for that purpose and to that intent, been mutually agreed upon and signed between the Governments of Great Britain and the Sandwich Islands; and it has been determined that any other Treaty or Conventional Agreement now existing between the respective parties shall be henceforward abrogated, and considered null and of no effect.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be perpetual peace and amity between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the King of the Sandwich Islands, their Heirs and Successors.

ARTICLE II.

The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty residing within the dominions of the King of the Sandwich Islands, shall enjoy the same protection, in regard to their civil rights as well as to their persons and properties, as native subjects; and the King of the Sandwich Islands engages to grant to British subjects the same rights and privileges which now are, or hereafter may be, granted to or enjoyed by any other foreigners, subjects of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE III.

No British subject accused of any crime whatever shall be judged otherwise than by a jury composed of native or foreign residents, proposed by the British Consul, and accepted by the Government of the Sandwich Islands.

ARTICLE IV.

The protection of the King of the Sandwich Islands shall be extended to all British vessels, their officers and crews. In case of shipwreck, the chiefs and inhabitants of the different parts of the Sandwich Islands shall succour them, and secure them from plunder. The salvage dues shall be regulated, in case of dispute, by arbitrators chosen by both parties.

ARTICLE V.

The desertion of seamen embarked on board of British vessels shall be severely repressed by the local authorities, who shall employ all the means at their disposal to arrest deserters; and all reasonable expenses of capture shall be defrayed by the captains or owners of the said vessels.

ARTICLE VI.

British merchandise or goods recognized as coming from the British dominions, shall not be prohibited ; nor shall they be subject to an import duty higher than five per cent. ad valorem. Wines, brandies, and other spirituous liquors, are, however, excepted from this stipulation, and shall be liable to such reasonable duty as the Hawaiian Government may think fit to lay upon them; provided always that the amount of duty shall not be so high as absolutely to prohibit the importation of the said articles.

ARTICLE VII.

No tonnage, import, or other duties shall be levied on British vessels, or goods imported in British vessels, beyond what are levied on vessels or goods of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE VIII.

The subjects of the King of the Sandwich Islands shall, in their commercial or other relations with Great Britain, be treated on the footing of the most favoured nation.

Papers relative to the Notice given by Prussia on her own behalf, and on behalf of the other States of the Zollverein, of the Termination of the Treaty concluded with Great Britain on the 2nd of March, 1841.

No. 1.

Viscount Palmerston to the Earl of Westmorland.

My Lord,

Foreign Office, May 11, 1847.

ALTHOUGH the formal announcement of the intention of the States of the Zollverein to allow the Treaty of 1841 to terminate, of which your Lordship gave notice in your despatch of the 19th ultimo, has not yet reached Her Majesty's Government, I yet deem it useful to make your Lordship at once acquainted with the opinions of Her Majesty's Government on that question.

However much Her Majesty's Government may regret the approaching termination of relations so recently contracted, and upon which the British Government had founded expectations of much reciprocal advantage, yet Her Majesty's Government cannot but admit that these expectations have not altogether been realized; for the Treaty, if productive of no benefit to the States of the Zollverein, has been nearly as barren of advantage to the interests of Great Britain. The only benefit worthy of mention accruing to Great Britain from the engagements of this Treaty has been the right to import goods into the ports of the Zollverein, in British ships, direct from ports not being British. This concession has however in practice proved of small value. In 1846 no more than four British vessels coming direct from third countries entered the Prussian ports, which are the only ports which the States of the Zollverein have to offer. These four vessels were, one of 236 tons, which came with sugar from Bahia; one of 110 tons, with wine from Messina; one of 90 tons, with a few articles from Bremen; and one of 94 tons, with herrings from Bergen; making in all 530 tons of shipping. The very slight advantage to be derived from such a trade as this, is more than counterbalanced even by the inconveniences which have arisen from the sanction afforded by the Treaty to a fiction under which inland States have been considered as being maritime States, and under which such inland States have exercised an influence in the decision of questions with respect to which their geographical position deprived them of the means of judging.

Under these circumstances, Her Majesty's Government, upon a full consideration of the matter, do not intend to offer any objection to the putting an end to the Treaty of 1841; and they are content, as regards the commercial relations of Great Britain with Prussia, to fall back upon the engagements contained in the Treaty of 1824 and upon the Orders in Council and Ordinances of May, 1826, which secure to British commerce and navigation in Prussian ports the privileges of the most favoured nation.

You will read the present despatch to Baron Canitz, and you will deliver to him officially a copy of the same.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) PALMERSTON.

No. 2.

Viscount Palmerston to the Earl of Westmorland.

(Extract.)

Foreign Office, May 11, 1847.

IT is understood by Her Majesty's Government that the real object of those of the States of the Zollverein who have urged the putting an end to the Treaty of 1841, is that they may thus pave the way for the introduction of a system of differential duties against British ships, which could not be enforced so long as that Treaty should remain in existence; and it is supposed that the Zollverein hopes to obtain the concurrence of the maritime States of Northern Germany, in the adoption of such differential duties.

It will not be difficult for your Lordship to show that such differential duties are always liable to be met by similar measures on the part of those States against which those duties may be directed; and that relations of commerce, which ought to be founded on principles of mutual concession and good-will, may thus be converted into a conflict of hostile enactments, which would of course be least injurious to that State whose commercial resources might be the most extensive.

Her Majesty's Government trust that they have given sufficient proof that this is a conflict into which they have no desire to enter.

The Chevalier Bunsen to Viscount Palmerston.—(Received May 13.)Légation de Prusse, le 10 Mai, 1847.

LE Soussigné, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté le Roi de Prusse près la Cour Britannique, a reçu l'ordre de faire à son Excellence M. le Vicomte Palmerston, Principal Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour les Affaires Etrangères, la communication suivante.

Le Gouvernement Prussien, en son nom et au nom de ses confédérés, membres du Zollverein, déclare son intention de faire cesser les effets du Traité de Commerce et de Navigation conclu avec la Grande Bretagne le 2 Mars, 1841, de manière qu'à compter du 1er Janvier, 1848, ce Traité ne pourra plus être considéré comme existant et liant les deux Hautes Parties Contractantes.

Le motif de cette résolution se trouve uniquement dans la conviction que le Traité en question, d'après l'expérience des années qui se sont écoulées depuis sa conclusion, n'a pas produit le développement des relations commerciales du Zollverein avec la Grande Bretagne, qu'on en avait espéré. La concession faite dans l'Article Premier aux bâtimens du Zollverein, d'après laquelle les ports situés entre la Meuse et l'Elbe doivent être considérés comme ports de l'Union, n'a guère été trouvée d'aucune utilité pratique. Mais ce qui paraît au Gouvernement Prussien s'opposer principalement à l'efficacité du Traité de 1841, c'est le manque de réciprocité malheureusement existant, quant aux lois qui régissent la navigation des deux pays. Tandis que la législation Prussienne, basée sur le principe de la liberté de la navigation, permet aux bâtimens Anglais d'importer dans les ports Prussiens les denrées et produits de toutes les parties du monde, les bâtimens du Zollverein ne peuvent importer dans les ports de la Grande Bretagne (pour les articles énumérés qui embrassent presque tous les objets importans) que le produit de leur propre pays. Les articles énumérés ont été de plus augmentés en 1827, donc après la conclusion du Traité de Réciprocité de 1824, de treize articles, parmi lesquels se trouve la laine et d'autres objets de première nécessité. Une telle mesure exceptionnelle a dû augmenter le manque de véritable réciprocité au préjudice du pavillon Prussien.

Le Traité de 1841 ne permet pas à la Prusse de restreindre d'une manière analogue l'admission de bâtimens Anglais, comme le demanderaient les intérêts lésés et l'opinion publique de l'Allemagne, dans laquelle ces intérêts ont trouvé un appui puissant.

Car l'Article Second de ce Traité accorde à la Grande Bretagne le droit de la nation la plus favorisée quant à l'importation du sucre et du riz.

L'expiration du Traité à la fin de l'année courante rend cette liberté au Gouvernement de la Prusse, et le changement des lois sur la navigation a été l'objet de ses délibérations sérieuses.

Cependant la nomination d'un comité parlementaire, chargé d'examiner les lois de navigation Anglaises, et d'en faire un rapport durant la session actuelle du Parlement, donne au Gouvernement Prussien l'espoir que la Grande Bretagne fera disparaître, à une époque peu éloignée, par une mesure législative générale, les restrictions qui pèsent maintenant sur la navigation et le commerce Allemand, et qui s'opposent si évidemment au développement des relations commerciales entre les deux pays.

Animé du vif désir de voir ces relations devenir toujours plus étendues et d'éviter tout ce qui pourrait, même pour un court espace de temps, retarder leur développement, si désirable pour les deux pays, le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Prussienne joint à la déclaration précédente, relative à la cessation du Traité de 1841, la proposition suivante.

Le Traité de 1824, comme Traité général de réciprocité, resterait la base reconnue des relations de commerce et de navigation entre les deux pays, en continuant d'être valides comme jusqu'ici, tant qu'il n'y aura pas eu une déclaration pour faire cesser ses effets.

De plus, en conséquence d'une déclaration diplomatique, le statu quo actuel serait maintenu de facto, par des ordres administratifs à donner aux autorités respectives, afin d'assurer aux Hautes Parties Contractantes la possibilité de s'entendre sur l'application aussi parfaite et étendue que possible du principe de réciprocité.

On établirait ainsi, malgré l'expiration du Traité, un modus vivendi, qui ne cesserait que trois ou six mois après que l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes eût fait une déclaration à cet effet.

Pour rendre ce statu quo supportable au commerce de la Prusse, et conforme, autant que possible, au principe de réciprocité, le Gouvernement Prussien attend avec confiance que le Gouvernement Britannique, dans ses sentimens d'équité, et en vue des relations intimes qui unissent les deux Gouvernemens, voudra appliquer aux bâtimens du Zollverein la même concession qui a été faite dans les dernières années par la Grande Bretagne en faveur d'autres Puissances, relativement aux ports de la Baltique, concession qui maintenant lèse considérablement les intérêts de la Prusse. Il paraîtra sans doute équitable au Gouvernement Britannique, que les bâtimens de l'Union pourront dorénavant importer librement les produits et denrées de tous les ports non-Prussiens de la Baltique, comme si ces bâtimens venaient de ports Prussiens de la même manière que les bâtimens Russes et Hanovriens venant de ports Prussiens de la Baltique, sont reçus avec leurs cargaisons dans les ports de l'Angleterre, comme s'ils venaient de ports nationaux.

(Translation.)

Prussian Legation, May 10, 1847.

THE Undersigned, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty the King of Prussia at the British Court, has received instructions to make the following communication to his Excellency Viscount Palmerston, Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The Prussian Government, in its own name, and in the name of its confederates, the members of the Zollverein, gives notice of its intention to cause the provisions of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation concluded with Great Britain on the 2nd of March, 1841, to cease, in such manner that from the 1st of January, 1848, that Treaty shall no longer be considered as in existence, or as binding upon the two High Contracting Parties.

The reason of this determination is to be found solely in the conviction that the Treaty in question, according to the experience of the years which have elapsed since its conclusion, has not produced that development in the commercial relations of the Zollverein with Great Britain, which had been looked for. The concession made to the ships of the Zollverein in the First Article, by which the ports between the Meuse and the Elbe are to be considered as ports of the Union, has hardly been found of any practical utility. But what appears to the Prussian Government to militate principally against the efficacy of the Treaty of 1841 is the want of reciprocity unhappily existing with respect to the laws which rule the navigation of the two countries. For while Prussian legislation, founded on the principle of liberty of navigation, allows British ships to import into Prussian ports the produce of all parts of the world, the ships of the Zollverein can only import into British ports (as regards the enumerated articles, including almost every article of importance) the produce of their own country. These enumerated articles were moreover increased in 1827, subsequent to the Treaty of Reciprocity of 1824, by Thirteen Articles, among which are to be found wool and other objects of primary necessity. So exceptional a measure could not but augment the want of real reciprocity to the prejudice of the Prussian flag.

The Treaty of 1841 does not allow Prussia, as the aggrieved interests and public opinion in Germany, which powerfully supports those interests, would require, to restrict in an analogous manner the admission of British ships; for the Second Article of this Treaty accords to Great Britain the right of the most favoured nation with respect to the importation of sugar and rice.

The expiration of the Treaty at the end of the present year will restore that liberty to the Prussian Government, and a change in the laws affecting navigation has been the subject of its serious consideration.

The nomination of a parliamentary committee to examine the English navigation laws, and to report during the present session of Parliament thereupon, has nevertheless held out to the Prussian Government a hope that Great Britain will at no remote period, by means of a general legislative measure, cause the restrictions to disappear which at present weigh upon German navigation and commerce, and which so notoriously impede the development of the commercial relations of the two countries.

Animated by the desire to see these relations constantly extend, and to avoid everything which could even for a brief space of time retard a development so much to be wished for for both countries, the Government of His Prussian Majesty joins to the preceding notice relative to the cessation of the Treaty of 1841, the following proposition.

The Treaty of 1824, as general Treaty of Reciprocity, shall remain the recognized basis of the relations of commerce and of navigation between the two countries, and shall continue to remain in force as heretofore, as long as notice shall not have been given of its cessation.

The existing status quo shall, moreover, by means of diplomatic declaration, be de facto maintained, and departmental orders shall be issued for that purpose to the respective authorities, in order to afford to the High Contracting Parties the opportunity of coming to an understanding with respect to an application of the principle of reciprocity as perfect and extended as possible.

Notwithstanding the expiration of the Treaty, a modus vivendi would thus be established, which need not terminate till three or six months after one of the High Contracting Parties shall have made a declaration to that effect.

In order to render this status quo endurable to Prussian commerce, and, in as far as practicable, conformable with the principle of reciprocity, the Prussian Government expects with confidence that the British Government, from feelings of equity, and out of regard to the intimate relations which unite the two Governments, will accord to the vessels of the Zollverein the same concession which has in late years been made by Great Britain in favour of other Powers, relative to the ports of the Baltic, a concession which at present greatly injures the interests of Prussia. It will no doubt be considered but fair by the British Government that the vessels of the Union shall henceforth be permitted to import freely the produce of all the non-Prussian ports of the Baltic, as if those vessels came from Prussian ports, in the same manner as Russian and Hanoverian vessels arriving from Prussian ports of the Baltic are received with their cargoes in the ports of England, as though they had arrived from national ports.

The Undersigned, &c.

(Signed)

BUNSEN.

No. 4.

Viscount Palmerston to the Chevalier Bunsen.

Foreign Office, June 14, 1847.

THE Undersigned, &c., has the honour to acknowledge the receipt on the 13th ultimo, of the note addressed to him on the 10th by the Chevalier Bunsen, &c., giving notice on the part of Prussia and of the other States of the Zollverein, of the termination on the 1st of January next, of the Treaty concluded with Great Britain on the 2nd of March, 1841; but at the same time suggesting that the provisions of that Treaty should, after its expiration, be allowed to remain in force provisionally, until the High Contracting Parties shall have seen whether they may not be able to come to a more satisfactory understanding; provided however, that the privileges granted by Great Britain to the shipping of certain other States, shall be in the meantime extended to the shipping of the States of the Zollverein.

In reply the Undersigned begs to say that Her Majesty's Government has already communicated to the Prussian Government, through Her Majesty's Minister at Berlin, their view of what was understood to be the intention of the States of the Zollverein as regards the Treaty of 1841. In the communication so made, of which a copy is annexed*, the Undersigned had the honour to explain to the Prussian Government, that if the engagements of the Treaty of 1841, have been unproductive of advantage to the States of the Zollverein, they have proved equally so to Great Britain; and that Her Majesty's Government would only regret the termination of that Treaty, because it puts an end to relations which were conceived in a friendly spirit, and from which there seemed at one time reason to hope that mutual advantage to all parties concerned might arise.

The reason assigned by the Chevalier Bunsen for the notice thus given by Prussia and the other States of the Zollverein, is the want of reciprocity in the navigation laws of the respective Contracting Parties. But that no great benefit has resulted to Great Britain from that indirect trade with Prussian ports, which the state of the Prussian law enables the Prussian Government to grant, is sufficiently manifest from the fact which has already been stated to the Prussian Government, through the Earl of Westmorland, namely, that in the year 1846 only four British vessels of the aggregate burthen of 530 tons, found it their interest to avail themselves of the privilege which, under Article I of the Treaty, British vessels enjoy of entering Prussian ports from third countries; and the Undersigned cannot therefore but believe that however insignificant the corresponding advantages may be which are derived by Prussia from the provisions of that same article, the concession made by Great Britain by this Article may at least be regarded as a full equivalent for that which is made by Prussia. The Undersigned would also beg to observe, that if the principle of strict reciprocity is to be assumed as the indispensable basis of the commercial relations between Great Britain and the Zollverein, there does not seem to be any good reason why that principle should be confined in its application to the navigation laws, nor why it should not also be applied to the tariffs of the respective parties.

As however it appears, from the Chevalier Bunsen's note, to be equally the desire of the Prussian Government, as it assuredly is of the Government of Her Majesty, to endeavour by negotiation to come to an understanding more conducive to the interests of both parties, the Undersigned will refrain from further examining this portion of the question at present, and will at once state how far it will be in the power of Her Majesty's Government to accede to the wishes of the Prussian Government as stated in the Chevalier Bunsen's note.

Her Majesty's Government are ready to consent that the provisions of the Treaty of 1841 shall provisionally remain the acknowledged basis of the trade and navigation between the two countries; but the Undersigned would at the same time suggest that the term of notice to be given of the cessation of such provisional arrangement should be six months rather than three, as the latter term might not afford sufficient time for making the arrangements which would be necessary previously to a change of the commercial relations between the two countries.

With respect to the additional concessions which the Prussian Government requires in order to render this provisional arrangement, as the Chevalier Bunsen states, endurable to Prussia, the Undersigned has to express his regret that the advantages accorded by Great Britain to certain other States as regards the ports of the Baltic, should be considered to have been injurious to Prussian commerce. That they should be so was assuredly not the intention of the British Government, which, in granting those advantages, was solely guided by principles of equity.

The privileges accorded to such of the above-mentioned States as are German States, but not members of the Zollverein, are only such as in consequence of their geographical position those States would have acquired under the Treaty of 1841, if they had become members of that Union; and surely the Government of Prussia could not expect that Great Britain should withhold from States which have always treated British commerce in the most liberal manner, advantages which those States might have acquired by associating themselves with a system of commercial policy less favourable to British interests. Her Majesty's Government have, on the other hand, no desire to withhold from Prussia such of the advantages in question which Prussian vessels do not already enjoy; and the Undersigned has accordingly to say, that the British Government is willing, during the existence of the proposed provisional arrangement, to consent that Prussian vessels, together with their cargoes, when coming from any port between the Meuse and the Elbe, and between the Trave and the Russian frontier, shall be admitted into the ports of the United Kingdom and of the British possessions abroad, in as full and ample a manner as if the ports from which such vessels may have come were all within the dominions of Prussia. This would add the ports of Mecklenburg and the port of Lübeck to those with respect to which Prussian vessels have already enjoyed the above concession.

As regards the privileges which have been granted to Russian vessels arriving in Great Britain from Prussian ports, the Undersigned has to observe, that those privileges apply only to vessels arriving from the two or three Prussian ports at the mouths of rivers which have their sources in, and which flow through, a great portion of the Russian Empire. The concession made to Russia is therefore precisely similar in principle to that made to Prussia, as regards the ports between the mouths of the Elbe and of the Meuse. The British Government was able to make both of these concessions under the existing provisions of the British law; but the concession now sought for by the Chevalier Bunsen, as regards the ports of Riga and other Russian ports not situated at the mouths of Prussian rivers, could not be granted by the British Government without the sanction of a fresh Act of Parliament; and although Her Majesty's Government would have no objection to introduce a bill into Parliament for granting the privilege in question, and would hope to be able to obtain the assent of Parliament thereto, if such a measure would be likely to promote a permanent commercial arrangement with the Prussian Government, yet Her Majesty's Government would not like to undertake to propose to the Legislature a law of this kind for a merely temporary purpose.

Zürich, den 10 Januar, 1847.

Der unterzeichnete außerordentliche Gesandte und bevollmächtigte Minister Seiner kaiserlich königlich apostolischen Majestät bei der Schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft, welcher den ihm Seitens des hohen Standes Zürich angezeigten Uebergang der vorörtlichen Leitung für die nächsten zwei Jahre an dem hohen Stand Bern seinem Hofe gemeldet hat, ist beauftragt, seine Beziehungen zu dem neu eintretenden Vorort durch nachstehende Eröffnung einzuleiten.

In der Behörde, an welche der Unterzeichnete die gegenwärtige Mittheilung zu richten hat, ehrt der österreichische Kaiserstaat die durch Art. X. des Bundesvertrags vom 7. August, 1815, für Leitung der Bundesangelegenheiten berufene.

Durch das Organ dieser Behörde wird der k. k. Hof, getreu seiner völkerrechtlichen Verpflichtungen, wie seinen Gefühlen aufrichtiger Freundschaft für die Schweiz, stets in solchem Sinne seine Verhältnisse zur Eidgenossenschaft zu pflegen bemüht seyn, in so fern als die Grundlage, aus welcher die dem jeweiligen Vororte übertragene Gewalt entspringt und auf der sie dermal von Bern geübt wird, in ihrem Bestande nicht angegriffen, und ihrem Geiste nicht verletzt wird.

Diese Grundlage ist aber keine andere, als die Bundesurkunde vom 7. August, 1815, und dem Geiste dieser letztern kann allein durch die unverbrüchliche Aufrechterhaltung der durch den Bund gewährleisteten, und nur für bestimmt ausgesprochene Bundeszwecke beschränkten Kantonal-souveränität Genüge geleistet werden.

Ueber diese Gesinnungen, und die daraus sich ergebenden Folgerungen glaubt der k. k. Hof den neu eintretenden Vorort um so weniger in Ungewissheit lassen zu dürfen, als die Zeitverhältnisse, unter denen er sein hohes Amt antritt, unverkennbar einen ernsten Charakter an sich tragen.

Indem der Unterzeichnete sich des ihm gewordenen Auftrags anmit zu entledigen die Ehre hat, ergreift er diesen Anlaß um Er. Excellenz Herrn Präsidenten und Regierungsrath des Kantons Bern, als eidgenössischen Vorort, seiner ausgezeichneten Hochachtung zu versichern.

Zurich, January 10, 1847.

THE Undersigned, &c., having communicated to his Court the notification made to him on the part of the High Canton of Zurich, of the transfer of the directorial functions for the ensuing two years, to the High Canton of Berne, is instructed to commence his official relations with the new Federal Directory by the following communication.

In the functionaries to whom the Undersigned has to address the present communication, the Austrian Government respects the authority which Article X of the Federal Compact has appointed to direct the affairs of the Confederation.

The Austrian Court, faithful to its international obligations as well as to its feelings of sincere friendship for Switzerland, will constantly endeavour to cultivate its relations to the Confederation through the medium of this authority, so long as the basis from which the power given to the Directory for the time being emanates, and by virtue of which that power is at present exercised by Berne, shall not be invaded in its essence or violated in its spirit.

Now this basis is no other than the Federal Compact of the 7th of August, 1815, the spirit of which can only be satisfied by faithfully upholding the Cantonal Sovereignty guaranteed by the Confederation, and only limited as regards specified Federal objects.

The Austrian Court feels itself the more especially bound not to leave the New Directory in ignorance of these sentiments, and of the consequences which they entail, inasmuch as the circumstances of the times under which the latter enters upon its high functions evidently bear a grave character.

The Undersigned, in thus executing the instructions he has received, avails himself, &c.,

The Russian Minister to the Federal Directory.

Zurich, le 29 Decembre, 1846.
10 Janvier, 1847.

LE Soussigné, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté l'Empereur de toutes les Russies, près la Confédération Suisse, a reçu du Gouvernement du Canton de Zurich, alors Directoire Fédéral, la notification d'usage, annonçant qu'à dater du 1er Janvier de la présente année, les fonctions directoriales dont il était investi se trouveraient remises entre les mains du Canton de Berne.

D'après les ordres dont il est muni, le Soussigné doit avoir l'honneur de faire connaître au nouveau Directoire de la Confédération Suisse, que voyant en lui l'autorité qui, en vertu de l'Article X du Pacte conclu le 7 Août, 1815, est appelée à gérer les affaires générales de la Confédération, la Russie entretiendra ses rapports de bienveillance accoutumée avec elle par l'organe du Directoire actuel, aussi longtemps que la base sur laquelle son pouvoir repose n'aura point été entamée dans son essence ni viciée dans son esprit. Cette base est le Pacte Fédéral de 1815, et l'esprit de cet acte n'est maintenu dans son intégrité, qu'en autant que les souverainetés cantonales, garanties par le Pacte et limitées seulement pour des buts spéciaux que la Constitution Fédérale indique, sont scrupuleusement respectées.

Plus les circonstances au milieu desquelles le Canton de Berne se charge des hautes fonctions qui lui sont imposées, sont graves, plus la Cour Impériale se croit obligée à ne point le laisser dans l'incertitude sur ses sentimens et sur les conséquences qui en découlent naturellement.

En s'acquittant ainsi des ordres de son Gouvernement, le Soussigné saisit, &c.

January 10, 1847.

THE Undersigned, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias to the Swiss Confederation, has received from the Government of the Canton of Zurich, at that time constituting the Federal Directory, the usual notification that, after the 1st of January of the present year, the directorial duties which it had been performing would be placed in the hands of the Canton of Berne.

The Undersigned, in obedience to the orders with which he has been furnished, has the honour to inform the new Directory of the Swiss Confederation, that Russia, recognizing in that body the authority which, in virtue of Article X of the Compact of the 7th of August, 1815, is called upon to manage the general affairs of the Confederation, will continue to maintain her friendly relations with that Confederation, through the medium of the existing Directory, so long as the basis upon which its power rests shall not have been encroached upon in its essence or violated in its spirit. This basis is the Federal Compact of 1815, and the spirit of this Act can be maintained in its integrity only so long as scrupulous respect shall be paid to the Cantonal Sovereignty guaranteed by the Compact, and limited only for certain special purposes indicated by the Federal Constitution.

The more difficult the circumstances are under which the Canton of Berne undertakes the high duties imposed upon it, the more does the Imperial Court consider itself called upon not to leave that Canton in doubt as to its opinions, or as to the consequences which naturally result from them.

In thus performing the orders of his Government the Undersigned, &c.,

The Federal Directory to the Austrian Minister and Prussian Chargé d'Affaires.

Bern, den 14 Januar, 1847

Raum haben Präsident und Regierungsrath des Kantons Bern, gemäß den Vorschriften des zwischen den XXII souveränen Kantonen der Schweiz am 7. August, 1815, abgeschlossenen Bundesvertrags die Befugnisse und Verrichtungen eines Vororts der schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft übernommen, so fanden sich Seine Excellenz Herr Freiherr von Kaisersfeld, k. k. österreichischer außerordentlicher Gesandter und bevollmächtigter Minister bei der schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft (Seine Hochwohlgeboren Herr Freiherr von Penz, königl. preussischer Geschäftsträger bei der schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft) in Folge erhaltener Aufträge veranlaßt, in einer vom 10. (11.) laufenden Monats datirten Note den erwähnten Bundesvertrag als die Grundlage näher zu bezeichnen, auf welche gestützt die k. k. österreichische (königl. preussische) Gesandtschaft die zwischen der schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft und den k. k. österreichischen (königl. preussischen) Staaten bestehenden freundschaftlichen Verhältnisse durch das Organ des eidgenössischen Vorortes Bern auch in Zukunft pflegen werde, und zu erklären, sie werde diese Verhältnisse so lange fortsetzen, als die erwähnte Grundlage, aus welcher die dem jeweiligen Vorort übertragene Gewalt entspringe und auf der sie dermalen von dem Kanton Bern geübt werde, in ihrem Bestand nicht angegriffen und in ihrem Geiste nicht verletzt werde.

So angenehm es dem Regierungsrath des Kantons Bern, als eidgenössischem Vorort ist, mit Sr. Excellenz (Sr. Hochwohlgeboren) in Geschäftsbeziehungen zu treten, eben so aufrichtig muß er bedauern, daß diese Beziehungen auf eine ungewöhnliche frühere Vorgängen wenig entsprechende Weise, eingeleitet werden.

Präsident und Regierungsrath des eidgenössischen Vorortes Bern werden es sich stets angelegen seyn lassen, auf die Grundlage vollständiger Gegenseitigkeit die völkerrechtlichen Verhältnisse, welche die schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft mit allen ihr befreundeten Staaten so gerne unterhält, sorgfältig zu pflegen und immer mehr zu befestigen.

Was aber die Leitung der eidgenössischen Geschäfte durch den Vorort anbetrifft, welche die Bundesverhältnisse der Schweiz unmittelbar berühren, so können Präsident und Regierungsrath des Vorortes Bern nicht umhin, Seiner Excellenz (Sr. Hochwohlgeboren) zu bemerken, daß sie in Beziehung auf diese Leitung einzig den mitverbündeten Kantonen verantwortlich sind, und so wie sie einerseits bemüht seyn werden, die ihnen vermöge ihrer bundesgemäßen Stellung dießfalls auferlegten Verpflichtungen gewissenhaft zu erfüllen, so sind sie anderseits eben so fest entschlossen, die Selbstständigkeit der schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft und ihrer bundesgemäßen Behörden sorgsam zu wahren und einen jeden allfälligen Versuch, sich in die innern Angelegenheiten der Eidgenossenschaft auf irgend eine Weise einzumischen, entschieden abzulehnen.

Präsident und Regierungsrath des eidgenössischen Vorortes Bern benutzen diesen Anlaß, Sr. Excellenz Herrn Freiherrn von Kaisersfeld, (Sr. Hochwohlgeboren Herrn Freiherrn von Penz) ihrer vollkommensten Hochachtung zu versichern.

Berne, January 14, 1847.

HARDLY had the President and the Council of State of the Canton of Berne, in conformity with the provisions of the Federal Compact concluded on the 7th of August, 1815, between the twenty-two Sovereign Cantons of Switzerland, assumed the attributes and functions of the Federal Directory of the Swiss Confederation, when his Excellency the Baron de Kaisersfeld, &c. (the Baron Von Peutz, &c.), in obedience to commands received by him, found himself induced, in a note dated the 10th (11th) of the present month, to designate the said Compact as the basis on which the Imperial Austrian (Royal Prussian) Mission intends to continue for the future to cultivate, through the medium of the Federal Directory of Berne, the friendly relations existing between the Swiss Confederate Cantons and the Austrian (Prussian) dominions, and to declare that these relations would be continued so long as the said basis, from which the power of the Federal Directory for the time being is derived, and in conformity with which that power is at present exercised by the Canton of Berne, should not be encroached upon in its essence or violated in its spirit.

However agreeable it may be to the Council of State of the Canton of Berne, as Federal Directory, to enter into official communications with his Excellency (with ———), it cannot at the same time but regret most sincerely that these communications should have been commenced in a manner unusual, and little in conformity with former precedents.

The President and Council of State of the Federal Directory of Berne will ever be solicitous carefully to maintain, and more and more to consolidate, on the basis of complete reciprocity, the international relations which the Swiss Confederation has so much satisfaction in maintaining with friendly States.

But with respect to the conduct by the Directory of the Federal affairs, which relate immediately to the internal affairs of Switzerland, the President and the Council of State of the Directory of Berne cannot avoid remarking to his Excellency (to ———), that with reference to the conduct of those affairs they are solely responsible to the other Confederated Cantons; and that inasmuch as they on the one hand are resolved to fulfil most conscientiously the obligations which their Federal position imposes on them, they are, on the other hand, equally determined carefully to defend the independence of the Swiss Confederation and of its Federal authorities, and resolutely to resist every possible attempt to interfere in any manner whatever in the internal affairs of the Confederation.

The President and Council of State avail, &c.

The Federal Directory to the Russian Minister.

A PEINE les Président et Conseil d'Etat du Canton de Berne avaient-ils été investis des attributions et des fonctions de Directoire de la Confédération Suisse, conformément aux prescriptions du Pacte Fédéral conclu le 7 Août, 1815, entre les vingt-deux Cantons Souverains de la Suisse, que son Excellence M. le Baron de Krüdener, Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Russie, s'est trouvé engagé en suite d'ordres reçus, à déclarer dans une note datée du 10 du courant, que le Pacte susmentionné serait la base sur laquelle la Légation Impériale de Russie continuerait d'entretenir par l'organe du Directoire Fédéral de Berne, les relations d'amitié existantes entre la Confédération Suisse et la Russie.

Son Excellence a déclaré de plus, que ces rapports seront continués aussi longtemps que la base de laquelle découle le pouvoir conféré au Directoire actuel et exercé par le Canton de Berne, n'aura point été entamée dans son essence ni viciée dans son esprit.

Autant il est agréable au Conseil d'Etat du Canton de Berne, comme Directoire Fédéral, d'entrer en rapport d'affaires avec son Excellence, autant il doit sincèrement regretter que ces relations aient commencé d'une manière inusitée et peu conforme à ce qui s'est pratiqué jusqu'à présent à cet égard.

Les Président et Conseil d'Etat du Directoire Fédéral de Berne se feront constamment un devoir de cultiver soigneusement et de consolider toujours d'avantage sur la base d'une entière réciprocité les rapports internationaux que la Confédération Suisse aime à entretenir avec tous les Etats amis.

Quant à ce qui concerne la gestion par le Directoire des affaires Fédérales, qui se rapportent directement aux intérêts fédéraux de la Suisse, les Président et Conseil d'Etat du Directoire de Berne ne peuvent s'empêcher de faire observer à son Excellence, qu'à l'égard de cette gestion ils sont responsables vis-à-vis des Cantons Confédérés seulement, et que tout en s'efforçant de remplir consciencieusement les obligations qui leur sont imposées par leur position, ils sont d'un autre côté fermement résolus à sauvegarder l'indépendance de la Confédération Suisse et de ses autorités établies en vertu du Pacte, bien déterminés qu'ils sont à s'opposer à toute tentative quelconque d'intervention dans les affaires intérieures de la Confédération.

Les Président et Conseil d'Etat du Directoire de Berne saisissent, &c.

Les Président et Conseil d'Etat du Canton
de Berne, Directoire Fédéral,

Et en leur nom,

Le Président.

THE President and Council of State of the Canton of Berne had hardly been invested with their attributes and their functions as the Directory of the Swiss Confederation, agreeably to the provision of the Federal Compact concluded on the 7th of August, 1815, between the twenty-two Sovereign Cantons of Switzerland, when his Excellency Baron Krüdener, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Russia, found himself called upon, in obedience to orders which he had received, to declare, in a note dated the 10th instant, that the above-mentioned Compact will be the basis upon which the Imperial Legation of Russia intends to continue to maintain, through the medium of the Federal Directory of Berne, the existing friendly relations between the Swiss Confederation and Russia.

His Excellency has moreover declared that those relations will be continued so long as the basis from which is derived the power vested in the Directory for the time being, and exercised by the Canton of Berne, shall not have been encroached upon in its essence or violated in its spirit.

However agreeable it may be for the Council of the State of Berne, as Federal Directory, to enter into official communications with his Excellency, it must still sincerely regret that those communications should have been opened in an unusual manner, and in one little in accordance with the practice which has hitherto been observed in this respect.

It will always be the duty of the President and Council of State of the Federal Directory of Berne carefully to cultivate and more and more to consolidate, on the basis of perfect reciprocity, the international relations which the Swiss Confederation is desirous to entertain with all friendly States.

With respect to what regards the administration, by the Directory, of the Federal affairs relating directly to the Federal interests of Switzerland, the President and Council of State of the Directory of Berne cannot refrain from requesting his Excellency to observe, that with respect to that administration, they are responsible to the Confederate Cantons only; and that, while they will endeavour to fulfil conscientiously the obligations imposed upon them by their position, they are, on the other hand, firmly resolved to defend the independence of the Swiss Confederation and that of the authorities established in virtue of the Compact, being firmly determined to oppose themselves to any attempt at interference in the international affairs of the Confederation.

The President and Council of State of the Directory of Berne avail themselves, &c.

BETWEEN
AND
THE GRAND DUKE OF TUSCANY.

Signed at Florence, April 5, 1847.

[Ratifications exchanged at Florence, June 12, 1847.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany, being equally animated by the desire of extending the commercial relations between their respective dominions, have agreed for this purpose to conclude a Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Honourable Peter Campbell Scarlett, Her Majesty's Secretary of Legation at the Court of His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany ;

And His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany, Alexander Humbourg, Knight of the Military Order of Saint Stephen Pope and Martyr, Knight of the Grand Cross of the Order of Merit, with the title of Saint Joseph, Commander of the Order of Civil Merit of Saxony, Knight of that of Leopold of Austria, Privy Councillor of State, Finance, and War, Director of the Royal Secretaryship of War, Minister of Foreign Affairs of His Imperial and Royal Highness :

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

SUA Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda, e Sua Altezza Imperiale e Reale il Gran Duca di Toscana, essendo ugualmente animati dal desiderio di estendere i rapporti commerciali tra i rispettivi loro dominj, hanno convenuto di concludere un Trattato di Commercio e di Navigazione, ed hanno nominato per loro Plenipotenziarii, cioè :

Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda, l'Onorevole Pietro Campbell Scarlett, Segretario della sua Legazione presso la Corte di Sua Altezza Imperiale e Reale il Gran Duca di Toscana ;

E Sua Altezza Imperiale e Reale il Gran Duca di Toscana, Alessandro Humbourg, Cavaliere del Militare Ordine di Santo Stefano Papa e Martire, Cavaliere Gran Croce dell' Ordine del Merito sotto il titolo di San Giuseppe, Commendatore dell' Ordine del Merito Civile di Sassonia, Cavaliere di quello di Leopoldo d'Austria, Consigliere intimo attuale di Stato, Finanze e Guerra, Direttore della Reale Segreteria de Guerra, Ministro degli Affari Esteri della Altezza Sua Imperiale e Reale :

I quali, dopo essersi reciprocamente comunicati i loro pieni poteri, trovati in buona e debita forma, hanno concordati e conclusi i seguenti Articoli :—

ARTICLE I.

From and after the date of the exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty, British vessels arriving at, remaining in, or departing from, the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies, and Tuscan vessels arriving at, remaining in, or departing from, the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of Her Britannic Majesty's possessions abroad, shall be subject to no other or higher dues or charges, of whatsoever nature they may be, than those which are now, or shall hereafter be, imposed upon national vessels, on their arrival at, during their remaining in, or on their departure from such ports.

ARTICLE II.

1. All articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of Tuscany and its dependencies, which are or shall be permitted to be exported from the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies in Tuscan vessels, shall likewise be permitted to be exported from those ports in British vessels, either to the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the ports of Her Britannic Majesty's possessions abroad, or to the ports of any other foreign country.

2. All articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, which are or shall be permitted to be exported from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in British vessels, shall likewise be permitted to be exported from those ports in Tuscan vessels, either to the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies, or to the ports of any other foreign country.

3. All articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of Tuscany and its dependencies, which are or shall be permitted to be imported in British vessels, from the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies, or from the ports of any other foreign country, into the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall likewise be permitted to be imported in Tuscan vessels.

ARTICOLO I.

A datare dal cambio delle ratifiche del presente Trattato, i bastimenti Inglesi nei porti della Toscana e sue dipendenze, sia al loro arrivo, sia durante la loro permanenza, sia nell'atto di partirne, e i bastimenti Toscani nei porti del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda e degli altri possedimenti di Sua Maestà Britannica, sia al loro arrivo, sia durante la loro permanenza, sia nell'atto di partirne, non saranno sottoposti ad altri o più elevati diritti o gravezze di qualsivoglia natura di quelli che attualmente sono o saranno imposti in seguito sui bastimenti nazionali nei detti porti, sia al loro arrivo, sia durante la loro permanenza, sia nell'atto di partirne.

ARTICOLO II.

1°. Tutti gli articoli di produzione del suolo o dell'industria della Toscana e sue dipendenze, dei quali è o sarà permessa la esportazione dai porti della Toscana e sue dipendenze con bastimenti Toscani, potranno del pari essere esportati da quei porti con bastimenti Inglesi a direzione tanto dei porti del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda e degli altri possedimenti di Sua Maestà Britannica, quanto ancora a direzione di qualunque altro estero paese.

2°. Tutti gli articoli di produzione del suolo e della industria dei domini di Sua Maestà Britannica dei quali è o sarà permessa l'esportazione dai porti del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda con bastimenti Inglesi, potranno del pari essere esportati da quei porti con bastimenti Toscani a direzione tanto dei porti della Toscana e sue dipendenze, quanto ancora di qualunque altro estero paese.

3°. Tutti gli articoli di produzione del suolo e della industria della Toscana e sue dipendenze, dei quali è o sarà permessa l'importazione dai porti della Toscana e sue dipendenze, o da quelli di qualunque estero paese nei porti del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda con bastimenti Inglesi, potranno del pari essere importati con bastimenti Toscani.

4. All articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which are or shall be permitted to be imported into the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies in Tuscan vessels, shall likewise be permitted to be imported into those ports in British vessels.

ARTICLE III.

All articles whatsoever which can be legally imported into the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Tuscan vessels, or into the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies in British vessels, shall, on their importation, be subject to the same duties of importation, dues, and charges, and be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, whether such articles be imported in vessels of the one or of the other country.

ARTICLE IV.

All articles whatsoever, which can legally be exported from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Tuscan vessels, or from the ports of Tuscany and its dependencies in British vessels, shall, on their exportation, be subject to the same duties of exportation, dues, and charges, and be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, whether such articles be exported in vessels of the one or of the other country.

ARTICLE V.

The Ionian Islands being under the protection of Her Britannic Majesty, the subjects and vessels of those islands shall enjoy in the Tuscan dominions, all the advantages which are granted by the present Treaty to the subjects and vessels of Great Britain, as soon as the Government of the Ionian Islands shall have agreed to grant the same reciprocal advantages in those islands to the subjects and vessels of His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany; it being understood that to prevent

ARTICOLO III.

Tutti i prodotti di qualunque sorta essi siano, che possono essere legalmente importati nei porti del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda con bastimenti Toscani, e nei porti della Toscana, e sue dipendenze con bastimenti Inglesi, saranno alla loro importazione sottoposti ai medesimi diritti d'importazione, tasse a gravezze, e otterranno le stesse facilità, rimborsi di diritti e vantaggi, sia che vengano importati con bastimenti dell' uno o dell' altro dei due stati.

ARTICOLO IV.

Tutti i prodotti di qualunque sorta essi siano, che possono essere legalmente esportati dai porti del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda con bastimenti Toscani, o dai porti della Toscana e sue dipendenze con bastimenti Inglesi, saranno, alla loro esportazione, sottoposti ai medesimi diritti di esportazione, tasse e gravezze, e otterranno le stesse facilità, rimborsi di diritti e vantaggi, sia che vengano esportati con bastimenti dell' uno o dell' altro dei due stati.

ARTICOLO V.

I sudditi e bastimenti delle Isole Ionie, essendo quelle isole sotto la protezione di Sua Maestà Britannica, godranno nei dominj Toscani di tutti i vantaggi accordati dal presente Trattato ai sudditi e bastimenti della Gran Bretagna, tostochè il Governo delle Isole Ionie avrà consentito di accordare gli stessi reciproci vantaggi in quelle isole ai sudditi e bastimenti di Sua Altezza Imperiale e Reale il Gran Duca di Toscana; bene inteso che all' effetto di prevenire qualsiasi abuso, ogni bastimento Ionio che abuses, every Ionian vessel claiming the benefits of the present Treaty, shall be furnished with a patent signed by the Lord High Commissioner, or by his representative.

vorra esser fatto partecipe dei benefizj del presente Trattato, dovrà essere munito di una patente firmata dal Lord Alto Commissario, o dal di lui rappresentante.

ARTICLE VI.

The present Treaty shall be in force, until the first of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, and further until the end of twelve months after either of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other of its intention to terminate the same; each of the High Contracting Parties reserving to itself the right of giving such notice to the other on the first of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, or at any subsequent time.

And it is hereby agreed between them, that at the expiration of twelve months after such notice shall have been received by either Party from the other, this Treaty, and all the provisions thereof, shall altogether cease and determine.

ARTICULO VI.

Il presente Trattato sarà in vigore fino al primo Gennajo, mille otto cento cinquanta-sette, e inoltre per dodici mesi compiuti decorrendi dal giorno in cui una delle Alte Parti Contraenti avrà notificata all'altra la propria intenzione di porvi termine, riserbandosi ciascuna delle due Alte Parti Contraenti il diritto di dare un tale avviso il primo di Gennajo, mille ottocento cinquanta-sei, o in ogni tempo susseguente.

Resta inoltre convenuto che dopo spirati i dodici mesi dall'epoca nella quale una delle due Parti avrà ricevuto dall'altra tale avviso, questo Trattato e tutte le sue disposizioni dovranno aver fine e cessare totalmente.

ARTICLE VII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications thereof shall be exchanged at Florence, at the expiration of two months, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the above-named Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty in two originals, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Declaration signed by the British and Tuscan Plenipotentiaries on the exchange of the Ratifications of the preceding Treaty.

THE Undersigned, Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany, having met together for the purpose of exchanging the ratifications of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation signed at Florence on the 5th of April last;

The Plenipotentiary of Her Britannick Majesty hereby declares, by order of his Government, that the provisions of the Treaty shall extend to the British possessions of Malta and Gibraltar.

The Plenipotentiary of His Imperial and Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Tuscany hereby declares, by order of his Government, that British steam-vessels may enter, remain in, and depart from Tuscan ports, without being obliged upon each occasion to pay the port charges of any kind which may be due, but that the account thereof shall be settled at the end of every six months; and the Consul of Her Britannick Majesty at Leghorn shall arrange with the authorities in Tuscany as to the measures to be taken for regulating and assuring the payment thereof.

The Plenipotentiary of His Imperial and Royal Highness further declares, by order of his Government, that British steam-vessels are permitted to maintain in Tuscan ports coal-hulks for their express use and at their own charge.

Done at Florence, the twelfth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

I SOTTOSCRITTI, Plenipotenziarj di Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda, e di Sua Altezza Imperiale e Reale il Gran Duca di Toscana, essendosi riuniti ad oggetto di procedere al cambio delle ratifiche del Trattato di Commercio e Navigazione firmato a Firenze il 5 Aprile ultimo decorso;

Il Plenipotenziario di Sua Maestà Britannica dichiara col presente atto, per ordine del proprio Governo, che tutte le disposizioni del suddetto Trattato saranno estese ai possedimenti Inglesi di Malta e Gibilterra.

Il Plenipotenziario di Sua Altezza Imperiale e Reale il Gran Duca di Toscana dichiara col presente atto, per ordine del proprio Governo, che i bastimenti a vapore Inglesi possono entrare nei porti Toscani, rimanervi e partirne, senza essere obbligati di pagare, volta per volta, le tasse di porto che sieno dovute, di qualunque specie, ma che il conto debba esserne saldato alla fine di ogni sei mesi; e il Console di Sua Maestà Britannica a Livorno dovrà concertarsi con le autorità Toscane quanto alle misure da prendersi per liquidare il conto stesso e assicurarne il pagamento.

Il Plenipotenziario dell' Imperiale e Reale Altezza Sua dichiara inoltre, per ordine del proprio Governo, che sarà permesso ai bastimenti a vapore Inglesi di mantenere nei porti Toscani dei carichi di carboni per espresso loro uso e a proprie spese.

Fatto a Firenze, il dì dodici di Giugno, mille ottocento quaranta sette.

Sir,

Foreign Office, March 31, 1847.

I HAVE received your despatch of the 12th ultimo, stating that measures have been taken for the purpose of raising a subscription in the United States for the relief of the Destitute Irish Poor, and I have to instruct you to take every opportunity of saying how grateful Her Majesty’s Government and the British nation at large feel for this kind and honourable manifestation of sympathy by the citizens of the United States for the sufferings of the Irish people. It might indeed have been expected that a generous and high-minded nation would deeply commiserate the sufferings which an awful visitation of Providence has inflicted upon so large a population descended from the same ancestors as themselves; but the active and energetic assistance which the people of the United States are thus affording to the poor Irish, while it reflects the highest honour upon our transatlantic brethren, must tend to draw closer, and to render stronger and more lasting those ties of friendship and mutual esteem which Her Majesty’s Government trust will long continue to exist between the two great branches of the Anglo-Saxon Family, separated indeed from each other by geographical position, but united together by common interests, to which every succeeding year must add increasing extension and force.

I am, &c.
(Signed) PALMERSTON.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS, IN RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE, PASSED AT WASHINGTON, APRIL 10, 1847, RELATIVE TO THE DONATION IN FOOD AND MONEY BY THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE RELIEF OF THE FAMINE IN IRELAND.

Presented to the House of Commons in pursuance of their Address of July 20, 1847.
